As is the case for as many years as most can remember school children, residents, local businesses, the police and fire personnel, veterans, the Pay It Forward group from LHS and the Londonderry Lions work in tandem to help those in need this holiday season.

Early Sunday morning, Nov. 18 members of the Lions Club, residents and the LHS Pay It Forward group gathered at the Londonderry High School cafeteria to sort food donations gathered from all over town for about 90 residents

Town Moderator Explains Election Cost Overruns

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Public Comment section of the Londonderry Town Council meeting on Monday night, Nov. 19, Town Moderator, Tom Freda spoke about the circumstances that led to election cost overruns.

Freda started out by telling the council that the official number on the amount of voters that turned out for the Nov. 6 General Election was over 10,000, well over 50% of the registered voter in Londonderry. He continued by thanking the Election workers, the ALERT team and the Police for their help in running a smooth election.

Freda added that it might be a good investment to buy chairs for the election workers who spend over 10 hours sitting during a large turnout election. He estimated the cost to be about $2,600.

He then shared with the council his findings of other costs the town was saddled with during the last election.

“As you are aware, one of the members of the Democratic Party that was running for State Representative, Alex Rego, who was also at the time was Vice Chairman of the Budget Committee, moved out of town, he informed the Budget Committee in early October that he was moving out of town.” He added, “On Oct. 15, I sent him an email asking what his status was, but never heard back from him.”

With his name on the ballot, and Rego not being a resident any longer, the 16,000 ballots printed and sent to the town were no longer valid.

On Oct. 30, Freda said he received word that Martha Smith would be replacing Rego on the ballot.

Ballots were reprinted and received on Thursday, Nov. 1. “That caused

All interested parties from Londonderry, Derry and surrounding areas of New Hampshire will have an opportunity to provide public comment and ask questions during the the I-93 Exit 4A Project Proposal Public Hearing on Wednesday, Dec. 5, at 6 p.m.

This key public meeting will be held at the West Running Brook Middle School, 1 West Running Brook Lane in Derry. The building will be open at 5 p.m. for the inspection of the proposal plans by any interested persons.

Members of the project team will be available also to informally discuss project alternatives and impacts.

The goals of the the I-93 Exit 4A project include reducing congestion, improving safety, and promoting economic vitality for the towns of Derry and Londonderry, New Hampshire. The Governor and Executive Council appointed a Special Committee this past September to conduct this Public Hearing to determine whether there is the occasion for the laying out of this project and to overview acquisition plans of necessary rights-of-way.

Keith Cota, Project Manger reports the project may directly impact 12-15 residential homes in Londonderry and about 170 homes in Derry, so

Conservation Reviews Cross Farm Agreement, Exit 4A Wetland Permit

MIKE BYERLY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Several months ago, when they reviewed the wetland permit for the Cross-Farm development, the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services (DES) required that the developers permanently protect 51 acres of the property that are important habitats for turtles, rabbits and other wildlife.

Initially, the developers looked at offering a conservation easement to either the state or the town of Londonderry. Neither wanted to hold an easement since that would put them on the hook for monitoring and remediation of any encroachments on the property.

Working with DES, the developer settled in a conservation covenant instead. The agreement places a number of restrictions on the use of the property including that it permanently remain open space, that no structures be built in it, and that the land not be disturbed. Representatives of Cross Farm, LLC attended the Nov. 13 Conservation Commission meeting to get feedback on the near-final draft of the agreement that had been negotiated with NH DES.

The fifty-one acres that are subject to the agreement represent most, but not all, of the wetlands on the property. The areas covered by the agreement between the developers and the state remain subject to the town's zoning rules regarding wetlands, but the agreement adds an additional layer of protection.

As part of the agreement, the developers are granted permission by NH DES to disturb wetlands in one area for the purposes of creating private access roadway and bridge for wetland crossings to reach other areas to other unrestricted lands. This road will be called Pilgrim Rd.

The developers will also be allowed to impact wetlands to install storm water drainage systems, including detention basins or other structures, as may be approved by the Town of Londonderry Planning Board; crossings for utilities as may be approved by the town; and subsurface septic system runoff as may be approved by NH DES.

Commissioner Mike

Speltz, supported by Commissioner Gene Harrington requested a few minor, technical changes the agree. Among these were to change the word Easement on the plan title to Restriction to make it clear that there is no easement and the addition of the word Easement to the agreement title.

Speltz also noted that the agreement included a definition of buffers up front, but that the agreement itself did not mention any restrictions related to buffers. He asked that the definition either be removed or a line added in the agreement indicating that the developer be held to the current town ordinance related to wetland buffers. This was to avoid confusion between the town's buffer ruled and what was specified in the agreement.

After some back and forth, the developer agreed to take the proposed changes to NH DES to see if they would agree to the changes since the agreement is between NH DES and the developer. The Commission voted to conditionally approve the agreement subject to NH DES agreeing to them.

The Commission then turned their attention to the wetland permit submitted by the NH Department of Transportation related to the planned Exit 4a. The permit, which is dozens of pages long, was reviewed by longtime Commissioner Gene Harrington.

He shared that he compared the wetlands delineated in the permit application to be consistent with other sources he has seen. He also said that the planned route came fairly close to minimizing the wetland impacts in Londonderry. Exit 4A will impact wetlands in Londonderry and Derry, but it is up to Derry to review and comment on impacts in their town.

The Commission does not have the authority to approve or deny the application – that is up to NH DES. They do, however, provide comments. In this case, they voted to add a comment requesting that wetland mitigation compensation be directed to Londonderry conservation efforts rather than having the mitigation payment go to the state Aquatic Resources Mitigation fund.

stemless glasses paired with a bottle of ????? We will have a variety of gift certificates from local coffee shops and eateries. Crafters who have joined us in the past for other events will also be donating items. (There will not be crafters at this event.) There will be staged setups for selfies and personal photo opportunities!!

The Londonderry Grange would like to take this chance to thank the North American Syrup Growers Council for choosing us to serve their luncheon at the hall on Oct. 29. This was one stop along the way of the final day of their Annual Convention; which was held in Concord, New Hampshire. Their first stop on the day long tour was Mack's Apples. Unfortunately the rain prevented them from walking through the apple orchards. The coordinator for the tour, Edie Kemp had offered us the opportunity to provide their lunch, as a fundraiser for our Raise the Roof Campaign. We welcomed them into the warmth of the Hall with a cup of hot mulled apple cider. The drink was graciously donated by Mack's Apples. Choice of a generous portion of either an American style or Italian style sub sandwich with all the fixings was laid out. We had homemade chili, butternut squash bisque and chicken noodle with orzo soups. This was followed by cookie platters.

The group heard a detailed but brief summary of what Grange is from our community service coordinator from the #1 Pomona level, Watatic Grange #36, Camille Twiss. The youth coordinator from that same grange, Sherrill Bokowsky also came along to help prepare and serve the meals. A little history of the building was also shared. Approximately one half of the guests were primarily French speaking as they came down from across Canada for the event. The others came from as far away as Wisconsin, Minnesota and Pennsylvania. Many spoke fondly of Hank Peterson who passed away in December of 2017. Some took photos of our memorial display in the Hall commemorating Hank who was a member of their group for many years. Good will donations piled up in our collection jar. A few signed a starter shingle for the roof project. By early afternoon the members were asked to embark on their tour bus for the next leg of that day's tour. They were grateful for a hot meal in a warm inviting place on that cold, rainy day. Next stop was a hydroponic garden center in Loudon.

Something To Be Said About A Smile

Kindness. Probably not a subject I should be writing about. You see, I tend to be the type of person who lets things get under my skin. The type of person who says enough is enough and then caves in.

I guess the people who bother me the most are the ones who seem to think the world owes them something just because, well, they exist. It's as though they feel that they are the "chosen few," the only ones on earth who have a right to be where they are when they are there.

Go to any big city today, find a bench on a corner, and just sit and watch. No one seems to care about the person next to them. No one seems to even think that the other person might be going through the same things they are. It seems like no one reaches out a hand to help anyone else unless they think it's going to result in something good for them.

Being kind to a person isn't difficult. Being kind isn't a sign of weakness. No. Being kind is probably just the opposite. Being kind to your neighbor, friend, family member or a complete stranger is more a show of strength than anything else.

You see, it doesn't take much for a person to get angry. There's no self-control or discipline involved in blowing up or taking your frustrations out on someone else. In today's world, that seems to be the norm, though. In today's world, it's more about doing unto others as they did unto you than it is do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. The golden rule seems to be a thing of the past.

A strong person learns how to reverse his or her emotions. It takes courage to step out from the shadows of everyone else and do something different. It takes strength to see the world from another person's point of view.

Just because someone stepped on your foot, doesn't mean you have the right to step on someone else's. Just because someone closed the door in your face, doesn't mean you shouldn't hold it open for someone else.

For example: walking out of a restaurant and having a complete stranger greet me with a smile and say hello. It wasn't a grand gesture. It didn't take any time out of his day. Still, that act of kindness set the tone for how I felt about the area.

Being kind isn't difficult. Being kind doesn't even have to take time away from your busy schedule. During this week, World Kindness Week, and throughout the rest of your life, why not share joy instead of frustration and anger. Be kind to your neighbor. It might just become contagious.

New Laws Create Complexity for School Board Budget Process

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry School Board is about to begin their fiscal year budget process and the first school board budget presentation was on Tuesday Nov. 20. Budget workshops are scheduled weekly over the near term with the public meeting presentation for the school budget to occur on Jan. 10, 2019.

As the budget is being developed, the school board is faced with new challenges related to two new legislative laws, namely House Bill 1307 and Senate Bill 342. With these bills, the NH Legislature revised the definition of "default budget," to create more specific requirements for what may and may not be included in the default budget, and also mandated new notice and transparency requirements for school boards to follow.

These legislative laws change the Londonderry school board budget process and impact it with new guidelines and with new process requirements subject to legal interpretation. As in previous budget years, the calculation of the default budget still starts with last year's operating budget. However, the question and challenge for the Londonderry School Board is to verify in accordance with the new laws which specific amounts must be taken out, and which amounts that were not included in last year's budget can be added.

Attorney Gordon Graham along with Scott Laliberte and Peter Curro, who are working on the budget with the committee, were present for a dialogue about the upcoming budget process at the Nov. 13 School Board Committee Meeting. Attorney Gordon Graham presented a review of the new laws for the School Board Committee including Jenn Ganem - Chairman, Nancy Hendricks - Vice-Chair as well as for committee members Dan Lekas, Steve Young, and Michael Saucier.

Graham told the board that "An operating budget is defined as excluding all of the appropriations that are voted separately, so it starts with just the operating budget that is contained in the main budget warrant article. Then the default budget is the same appropriations as contained in the prior years operating budget that is increased or reduced as the case may be - by debt service, contracts, and other obligations previously incurred or mandated by law and reduced by one time expenditures contained in the operating budget

Graham pointed out that there had been a consistent definition for the school board to use in their budget calculations in the past though now there are new guidelines that legally must be adhered to - that change how the budget may be developed and calculated.

Graham discussed that part of the challenge is that a NH Supreme Court ruling outlined that the default budget has been ruled - not as a budget at all, but simply as an amount. The new legislative laws have changed previous calculations for the default budget and the amount to use for the default budget process. For example, the law has clarified now that salary and benefits of positions that had been eliminated in the proposed budget cannot appear now in the default budget as may have been done in the past.

So there is added complexity initially for the Londonderry School Board in the budget process that is different from the past process work. Committee members discussed that clarification of the new laws to reconcile with the Londonderry School Board budget may initially complicate the process. For example, if the operating budget is defeated by voters, the new budget process will need to be calculated with guidelines that enable to the school board to move forward accordingly. So there will also likely be a rethinking by the school board committee to proactively make the budget work within the final voting processes as contracts and obligations change over time.

SafeStop Enables Londonderry School Bus Tracking

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Putting children on a school bus can be scary for both the parents and the kids.

Families often have to guess about new bus routing or when a bus is late or when the bus misses a school stop altogether. And there could be plenty of reasons why a school bus may not be on time. For example weather, traffic, or mechanical problems could contribute to delays or non stops.

Since September, the Londonderry School District has been using a bus guidance system called SafeStop, and now a parent can access bus tracking with fast, convenient and updated information. There is an app for this tracking technology to securely see school buses as they drive their routes.

The Londonderry School District has a contract with Student Transportation, Inc (STI) to provide the safe and on time school bus transportation. STI's Technology and Innovation group developed the SafeStop application in 2013 for safety, bus time information and with ease of use in mind. The "app" was successfully tested that school year in school districts in Florida and then rolled out over the past 5 years to hundreds of US schools. Now there is extensive experience to support that this bus route tracking works well, so parents can know more and worry less about sending their kids to school on the buses.

The SafeStop app for parents and students is available for Apple iOS and Android devices from Google, Samsung, LG and others. There is also a SafeStop web app for computers. The key idea that STI shared with Londonderry school officials is to bridge the gap to tell the location of a student's bus via a map in real time during all student bus trip times. This can even include off site trips for sports, field trips or other extra-curricular school activities. Hopefully there will be no more standing outside in bad weather or on snow days hoping the bus gets there on time.

How does the SafeStop app work? By pulling your student's information about their enrollment for bus transportation, and aligning the information via GPS to your students bus route. So you can even see the projected route real time for the specific bus for your student. Parents who would like to track their student(s) bus must register online to setup an account at safestopapp.com on an annual basis. SafeStop will continually update bus routes that change during the school year as part of your access.

There is a very secure registration process to ensure only parents can access student information. Please navigate to <http://LondonderryNH.safestopapp.com/activate>;

you will need to enter your child's Student ID (LASID Number) to set up an account. If you don't have the ID number, you should contact the school directly or via their Aspen website process to acquire the right information.

Why register for the SafeStop technology? The mobile app is free, features neighborhood maps and a MapView bus locator with routing guides. Using GPS technology, the app updates every 30 seconds to help you and your students better plan a busy day. You can have up to two user names per account to share access between parents or caregivers. There are alerts and a messaging center for service notifications and other updates.

For parents who have several children in the school district riding buses to different schools, having the app may be huge. Kids will also likely enjoy the app, because it allows them to know exactly when it's time to get moving and head for the bus stop ...as many kids like to have every extra minute they can in the morning.

the Town Clerks office some problems," Freda said.

Since the invalid absentee ballots had already being sent out, all of those needed to be resent.

There was also a problem with the fact that there were two ballots sent out, one good and one bad.

He told the council that it also created a problem with the ballot counting. A new machine needed to be rented and programmed with the new ballots.

Rental of the new machine was $2,565, cost of ballot clerk was about $462.50 and he figured the total cost for this issue was in the neighborhood of over $4,000.

This means, according to Freda, that the election budget ran over by about $3,000 which didn't include mailing the ballots.

Freda was more than aggravated with the fact the Rego never responded to his initial inquiries about his moving. He said, "Frankly it's not my job to track him down, he has an obligation to tell the town if he is not qualified."

He finished by saying that he brought this to the council attention so that when they're reviewing budgets they'd no why there is an overrun in the election budget.

New Rules to State Educator Codes of Conduct and Ethics Approved

MELISSA RUIZ
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Earlier this year, a task force made up of 20 administrators, educators, and teacher unions analyzed rule changes and made suggestions for improvement to the New Hampshire Educator Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct.

On Nov. 8, the New Hampshire State Board of Education approved new rules to the educator Code of Conduct, following the approval of an educator Code of Ethics in June of this year.

According to a press release, this combined set of rules and procedures are not in response to any one incident or set of circumstances, but are in fact designed to build on the high standards of New Hampshire's educators, to elevate the education profession, and to provide guidance to educators.

While the Code of Ethics outlines aspirational goals for educators, the Code of Conduct precisely describes inappropriate activities and due process when rules have not been followed, continued the press release.

The Educator Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics aim to empower local school districts with shared responsibility, transparency, and clarity when addressing personnel matters.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics was created by the NH Department of Education in 2015, and was advanced by the Legislature in the form of House Bill 1457 in 2016, which called for establishing a code of ethics for NH educators, and House Bill 210 in 2017, requiring the state board to adopt a code no later than July 1, 2018.

While educators and faculty members ranging from counselors to administrators hold themselves to a very high standard, New Hampshire has seen a number of educator misconduct investigations in recent years.

According to data from the NH Department of Education, the number of cases of misconduct grew from 170 in 2014 to 222 so far in 2018. Furthermore, between nine and 16 educator license revocations and suspensions have occurred annually during the past five years.

Both the code of Conduct and Code of Ethics include four core principles outlined in the aforementioned 2017 legislation, including responsibility to students, responsibility to education profession and educational professionals, responsibility to the school community, and ethical use of technology.

Some of the changes to rules in education in New Hampshire include a definition of inappropriate student communication, expanded specificity as to matters of misconduct, clarifications on the process of reporting incidents, and an immediate suspension when an arrest occurs for certain egregious offenses.

The procedural improvements regarding the Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics are not to be overlooked. While these rules and procedures are immediately instated, the NH Department of Education has established a process whereby educators agreed to the Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics during the credentialing process.

While the changes to the documents are fairly straightforward, Edelblut mentioned that the NH Department of Education is preparing a variety of workshops to help promote them effectively to educators and to help them become better familiarized with the updates.

"(These updates) will work for communities as well." Edelblut said, explaining that from time to time circumstances occur where people of a community may be uncertain as to how the situation will be handled, and that now thanks to the changes, communities can be assured that proper processes will be followed, should these circumstances arise.

Parents, guardians, or anyone with further questions regarding these changes may contact the NH Department of Education at (603) 271-3494. A PDF of the updated Educator Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct is available on the NH Department of Education website at www.education.nh.gov.

North School Embraces World Kindness Day for a Month

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

"Kindness is Contagious" said Allyson Burgess, a Londonderry North Elementary School Student Council leader.

The Student Council team orchestrated not only the World Kindness day event on Tuesday Nov. 13, they wanted to make whole month a kindness month at the North School. So the students aligned their plan with North School Principal, Paul Dutton and November 2018 was declared "Kindness Month".

While all Londonderry Schools including the elementary, middle and high schools supported World Kindness Day with special events, the North School took kindness actions even a step further.

Mrs. Carol Currier, a North School 5th grade Teacher is the Student Council Advisor. Mrs. Currier reported that SC team members took part in a two-day leadership conference in late September, where they learned useful information about leadership skills such as how leaders act or can speak to motivate people as well as body language leaders display. This conference proposed that the team develop a project during the school year, where they could lead the entire school's student population in a beneficial manner.

Dutton explained that the Student Council team had done a great job to support actions with awareness and consideration for all student grade levels to make Kindness Month a success at North school.

SC leaders also organized the North School's Kindness Month around their Bear Paw concepts of Respect, Safety, Kindness and Responsibility. Posters and rotating message signs to promote the kindness message were orchestrated in areas around the school including the front lobby.

The North School Student Council developed a team plan to promote kindness across all grade levels at the school. Their plan for North School Kindness Month includes:

- Each morning, an Council member reads a kindness quote during the all school announcements.
- Each classroom teacher received kindness bracelets to be handed out to students "caught being kind". The goal is for every student to receive one bracelet by the end of the month.
- Each classroom

teacher received a bag containing papers with suggested acts of kindness. One paper was to be drawn everyday and shared with the class.

The goal is for each grade level to perform 200 acts of kindness for a grand total of 1000 kindness acts at the school. SC members monitor the acts and record updated totals on a thermometer graphic in the lobby.

Teachers are encouraged to take pictures of students "caught being kind" and send pictures to Mrs. Currier. A slide show using the photos is to be shown at the Thanksgiving Assembly.

SC members conducted a short assembly on Tuesday Nov. 13 - World Kindness day for each grade level. The SC also performed skits to discuss what it means to be kind to everyone at the North School.

Principal Dutton was very pleased with the leadership effort by the SC members as well as being proud of all the school's students who have made North School a better place for everyone with their kindness actions. Everyone on the SC reported that the kindness acts are downright contagious and growing daily throughout the North School!

The North School Student Council team includes Allyson Burgess, Madeleine Gavlin, Faith Nolan, Simone Miller, Donovan Chylinski, William Erdtmann, Aidan Stowe II, William Hazzard, Sean Connors, and Annie Willams who are all inspirational student leaders.

Middle School Hosts FIRST Lego League Competition

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry Middle Schoolers are learning STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) skills in fun ways in FIRST Lego League competitions held across New Hampshire over the school year. These competitions are part of a global FIRST Lego League program.

NH Middle school students have been working for the past several months building and coding autonomous robots for the competitions. On Saturday Nov. 10, Londonderry Middle School hosted a qualifying competition, where 12 teams competed.

The following four teams advanced from the qualifying round to the State Championship that will take place at Windham High School on Sunday, December 2nd: 1.) Pembroke Pioneers (Pembroke), 2.) Circuit Breakers (Litchfield) 3.) Legendary Block Hounds (Litchfield) and 4.) Bots N'Bones (Windham). Londonderry Middle School's Tech Turtlez finished 7th and Artificial Stars finished 9th.

FIRST Lego League teams have up to 10 members and are set up for grades four to eight to research real world problems as a team and then to program robots using a "Lego Mindstorms" kits to compete on a table top playing field. The two Londonderry teams - Tech Turtlez and Artificial Stars are mentored by Londonderry High School FIRST team members to guide them through real-world engineering challenges, develop solutions, and compete with their own Lego-based robot designs.

While mentors coach the students, the middle schoolers choose their project and do the robot work themselves. Mentor Mackenzie Connor, Inspiration Coordinator of a Londonderry High School FIRST Robotics Competition team, the PVC Pirates, says the best thing about the mentor program is how excited the kids get about the competitions while designing their own robots.

One competition project was singled out by Mentor Adrianna Belanger, PVC Pirates Operations Coordinator. The Legendary Block Hounds (Litchfield) team built a space bed with actual blankets rather than sleeping bags velcro'd in place. The team theorized they could harness astronaut energy expended in exercising and create a static electric blanket for an astronaut to sleep with. They researched their design with engineers including a Disney engineer who told them this invention would give astronauts a piece of home in space and help them to sleep better.

Teams are judged in competition on the project, how well the team works together, and the actual robot design/programming. There are a series of qualifying meets at different locations in NH and points are accumulated with a goal of being a FIRST Lego League State Champion.

The FIRST Lego League Program is celebrating its 30th season. The mission this year is to blast off and break out of earthly constraints and go INTO ORBIT. The INTO ORBIT theme guides teams to develop projects where they are to explore, challenge and innovate in the vast expanse of space. There are inspirational resources to leverage INTO ORBIT branding with posters, computer wallpapers, and graphics for media communications.

Dean Kamen of Bedford, NH, founded FIRST in 1989. FIRST is an acronym - For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology. Kamen, widely recognized for his award winning technology businesses, famously invented the Segway transporter and other cutting edge robotic solutions - though Kamen feels FIRST is his greatest invention. Kamen says. "FIRST is more than robots. The robots are a vehicle for students to learn important life skills. Kids often come in not knowing what to expect - of the program nor of themselves. The leave, even after the first season, with a vision, with confidence, and with a sense that they can create their own future.

FIRST programs cover different ages and grades including a Lego League Jr. for kids ages 6-10, Tech Challenge for students in grades 7-12, and ROBOT-ICS COMPETITION for high schoolers.

Holiday Spirit Connects Community with Tree Lighting on Town Common

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Christmas season traditionally kicks off in Londonderry with the annual Christmas Tree Lighting festivities on the Londonderry Town Common. Christmas on the Commons, presented by the Rotary Club of Londonderry, will take place on Sunday, Dec. 2. This year's festivities will start at 3 pm and continue to around 6 p.m.

Members of the fire department will be on hand to help keep things merry and bright with a fire pit while attendees listen to their favorite carols and holiday songs performed by the scouts and members of the Londonderry High School Chorus. There will be refreshments designed to keep everyone warm including Hot Cider, Cocoa, and Chili as well as Holiday Cookies.

At approximately 4 p.m., as it starts to get dark, a fire truck will escort Santa and Mrs. Claus along with their Elf to oversee the illumination of decorated trees. Families will be delighted at the sight of Santa's arrival, where kids can present Santa with their Christmas wish list and get a photo taken.

The Rotary Club has been organizing the holiday celebration for 25 years, and Faye Sell of Martinelli Travel has been a part of it for the last 24. Faye says she is passionate about the Rotary Club's projects and is spearheading this Christmas event again for 2018 with contributions from the entire club. The Londonderry Rotary Club works annually with many youth groups, local non-profit organizations and area businesses to put on this event.

Sell looks forward to the spectacle every year and "watching the excitement of the children." "It's a great way to kick off the holiday season," she said. She expects approximately 150 children and family members to attend. She said, "we gage that by how many candy canes we give away."

24 trees will be available beginning Dec. 1 - on the town commons for decoration by enthusiastic Girl Scout troops, daycare classes, Cub Scouts, church groups and more. Groups often get creative using decorations made from natural and edible materials that are wildlife-friendly. The decorated trees will stay up through the holiday season for the whole town to enjoy.

If you are interested in decorating a tree, there are a few left to claim by contacting Rotarian Faye Sell at 603-434-4989.

those impacted may want to know the timelines, specific impact information and key proposal logistics.

Relocation assistance will be accommodated to each owner or tenant whose improvements or property will be directly impacted by the proposed project based their eligibility.

The Towns of Derry and Londonderry (the Towns) as well as the New Hampshire Department of Transportation (NHDOT), in cooperation with the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), are advancing an updated environmental study for the I-93 Exit 4A Project.

Written comments will be accepted for up to 30 days after the Public Hearing for inclusion in the official record to also include comments about Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). The EIS is currently available for public review. The review period to submit comments on the EIS is open until Jan. 4, 2019.

The proposed construction will include a new roadway extending east from the proposed interchange project for the approximately 0.75 miles to join North High Street in Derry near its intersection with Madden Road. Improvements to I-93 related to the new interchange will extend approximately 0.6 miles to the north and south. The project will also include reconstruction of North High Street from Madden Road to Franklin Street, Folsom Road from Franklin Street to NH 28, and Tsienneto Road between NH 28 and NH 102.

Planning for the Project began in 1985, with a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) being completed in 2007. In Oct. 2015, the Governor's Office directed NHDOT to accelerate the Exit 4A Project, and the Project was subsequently incorporated in the state's Ten Year Transportation Improvement Plan for 2017-2026. NHDOT and the Towns entered into an agreement under which NHDOT will provide administrative oversight to complete the environmental review process, then the Project will transition to NHDOT control during final design and construction.

After completion of the Supplementary EIS and the presentation of a Preferred Alternative Plan at this Public Hearing, a Proposed Action will be chosen with input from

State and Federal Agencies; State, Town and local officials; and the public. NHDOT and FHWA will complete the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) review process by issuing a Combined Final EIS (FEIS) and Record of Decision (ROD).

Construction of the project if approved, is anticipated to begin in 2019 and be completed by 2022. The calculated cost of the Project within the 2017-2026 Ten Year Plan is $56,855,000, including preliminary engineering, right-of-way, and construction costs.

All local residents or property owners who are impacted, or have questions or comments should be sure to attend the Public hearing in Derry on Wednesday Dec. 5.

Juniors Prevail in Annual Powder Puff Contest at LHS

The Londonderry High School's Class of 2020 certainly has its share of competitive athletic girls in its ranks, and the fact that they overpowered all other teams at the schools annual Powder Puff Competition sure proves that fact. Lead by quarterback Colleen Furlong and runners Gillian Vilela, Olivia Stowell and Jazzy Richards the girls beat up on the Sophomore team 28-0 and the Senior team 14-0 to take the title for the second straight year. It was a great fall season for the Londonderry High School varsity soccer teams, with the girls' team making it all the way to the state finals and enjoying a fantastic 16-2-1 record and the boys' team finishing the season with a 10-2-2 record before narrowly losing their first round playoff game to Keene High School 2-1. Now, it is time to reward those who excelled.

Seven Lancers, five girls and two boys, received All-State recognition last week by the Division I coaches.

Junior forward, Olivia Stowell, of the LHS varsity girls' team was selected for the All-State First Team. Stowell also recognized for her outstanding efforts with being chosen as an All New England Team member.

LHS Gymnastics Team Prepares for Run at DI State Title

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Over the last three years, the Londonderry High School Gymnastics team was one of the top two in New Hampshire. The Lancers won the state title in 2016 and finished second to rivals Pinkerton Academy in both 2017 and 2018. Entering a new season, they know they have a good chance to be back on the top step of the podium.

The team had 27 wins, and only one loss last season (in each Division 1 meet the Lancers can face up to seven other schools): "We have a very small team this year, with 11 gymnasts", coach Heather Lennon reported, "Our goals this year will be to have the entire team work together, put up a solid six scores on every event and peak at the states. We have some very tough opponents this year, including

Maddie Croteau

Seana Kelly

Pinkerton and Bedford. We really need our seniors to step up and lead".

Those seniors are Maddie Croteau, Seana Kelly and Suzie Moore and their first competition this season will be on Dec. 22, 6 p.m., at the Top Gun Gymnastics in Holderness: "We have one home meet this year, and this is the meet to make if you are our fan", adds Lennon, "Our girls love performing for the home crowd and it will also be our senior meet". It will be held on Jan. 17, 7 p.m., at the LHS gymnasium.

Other team members this year are junior Marissa McKay, sophomores Sophie Hagymas and Ashley Griffin and the five freshmen Makenna Lord, Quinn Brown, Nicole Stone, Ella Houghton and Laura Brown.

Ten teams competed in the annual Dodgeball tournament in Londonderry High School last Tuesday. About 70 students gathered at the LHS gymnasium on Tuesday, Nov. 13 to participate with the eventual winner being the "Duck, Duck, Chuck" team. The six man team worked its way out of the loser's bracket to beat "Honcho Slmmie" in the finals during this one-night tournament match-up.

The tournament was run by the Athletic Leadership Council and part of the proceeds raised at the event went to support "End 68 Hours of Hunger," a non-profit organization that fights childhood hunger across America.

Lancer Boys Indoor Track Team Aims Higher This Season

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

After the Londonderry High School Boys' Indoor Track team eighth place finish in last year's NHIAA Division I Championship meet, the team is not ready to lower expectations, "Our expectation this year is to first and foremost improve our place", says coach Matt Smith, who is preparing his athletes for the new season.

The Lancers' first meeting of the season will be a Track meet and will take place at the University of New Hampshire campus, in less than a month on Dec. 15, at 1 p.m. This season, LHS will compete in a total of six meets, including relays, until Senior Patrick Hagearty will be a major contributor to the winter track team's success.

Senior distance runner Eric Nowak will be returning again this season.

they get to the Qualifying Standards, on Jan. 20 and 27 and to the Championship meet, at Dartmouth College, on Feb. 3. "This will be the season's highlight meeting", says Smith, "it always produces some excellent performances".

"We expect to have more individual qualifiers across the board and for more of those individuals to score points for the team", adds coach Smith, "We have the best thrower in the state in senior Patrick Hagearty and a young and deep group of distance runners. Combine that with our sprinters and jumpers, who continue to improve and we hope to compete for a top 5 spot in our division this time".

LHS JV Field Hockey Coach Enjoys Her First Season

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

As coach Kelly Gibson looks back at her first year with the Londonderry High School Field Hockey Junior Varsity team, she will remember some great performances. The team won eight of its 14 games this fall season and Gibson says:

"I was very happy with our record. The team exceeded my expectations. As a first year coach, I could not ask for a more hardworking, dedicated and passionate group of girls. Every day I demanded their best and they gave me that, and more".

In a ten day span during September, the young

Lances had a four game winning streak, where they did not concede a single goal and Gibson recalls the first game of that streak, which was a 1-0 win over Merrimack, "It was an exciting game, because the only goal was scored and assisted by two first time players, Katie Doherty with the goal and Caroline Leone with the assist. It is always nice to see new players help us win".

Another game Gibson recalls enjoying was the first one of the season, a 3-0 win over Salem, "The first game is always interesting and you never know how the team is going to perform. I could tell from our first scrimmage of the season, a 3-0 win over Goffstown, that this team is going to be special. We continued that momentum to our game against Salem. The girls really fought for every goal and every inch on the field to come out on top. Other good games were a 1-0 win over Concord, a game that came down to the last two minutes, when our star forward Skylar Hamilton pulled off the winning goal and our 3-0 wins over Nashua and Timberlane".

The young team members were: Goalkeeper Riley Walter (2021), defenders Grace Harpster (2021), Erin Strike (2021), Grace Holland (2021), Nikki Walsh (2021),

The LHS Girls' JV Soccer Team Finishes with an Eight-Win Season

The Londonderry High School girls' soccer varsity team made a trip to the state finals this fall season and judging by the results of the school's Junior Varsity (JV) team, the Lady Lancers might enjoy more success in the next few years.

The JV team, coached by Erin Dallas, finished their fall season with a strong record. The team had eight wins, and just three losses with two games ending up as draws. The season included a 7-0 win over the Timberlane Regional High School Owl's back on Sept. 7. That game that was the beginning of a three game winning streak for Dallas' girls, and included a 10-0 celebration at home against Dover on Oct. 5 and a 6-2 home victory against Bedford on Sep. 18, a game that Dallas marked as her team's best game of the season: "Early goals and good finishes".

"This year's team was a young and creative bunch, with a lot of determination to do the right things on the field", says Dallas, "Collectively, the team came to each game to compete and I believe that was accomplished".

Protecting Londonderry's Water Resources

JULIE CHRISTENSON-COLLINS
SUBMISSION LONDONDERRY'S
CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Recent events like the drought in 2016, concerns about contamination of groundwater by local manufacturing or dumping of contaminated soil, and increased local development highlight the need to protect our local environment. In Londonderry, where most homes rely on private wells, the quality and quantity of groundwater is a critical issue for residents. The Town will soon conduct a water quality study and a water resources survey to understand the current state and recommend measures to preserve and manage our water resources.

Wetlands are vital to ensuring adequate, high quality water for most residents. Besides supporting fish and other wildlife and absorbing floodwaters in storms, wetlands treat stormwater and recharge groundwater supplies. Stormwater, which harmful substances can contaminate as it runs over roads and parking lots, is filtered through wetlands, where plants and microorganisms absorb and break down many of these harmful substances.

Because wetlands are so important, plans for new housing and business development are carefully reviewed at both the state and municipal level to ensure compliance with laws and regulations designed to minimize the impact of development on this critical resource.

The Londonderry Conservation Commission works to protect water resources in town. It reviews plans for land development and advises state regulatory agencies and the Planning Board. It also recommends developers consider options that can protect water quality in areas such as minimizing impervious surface, siting snow storage, and incorporating effective water drainage systems. The Commission also promotes land conservation to preserve valuable wetland ecosystems.

What Homeowners Can Do

The choices that we,

as residents make at home can directly impact the quality of our water and that of our neighbors. To conserve water, homeowners can water lawns sparingly, choose to water lawns in the morning, and avoid it on windy days. Other steps to conserve water include installing low water showerheads, high efficiency washers, and low flush toilets.

To protect water quality, homeowners can avoid or minimize the use of pesticides and fertilizers and ensure that chemicals and pollutants are disposed of properly, preventing contamination of groundwater. Regular maintenance of septic systems is also critical to preventing groundwater contamination; for most homeowners, we recommend pumping the septic tank every 1 to 3 years.

Rain Gardens Reduce Runoff

Finally, homeowners can use vegetative buffers along drainage areas to mitigate stormwater runoff. Rain Gardens can be an attractive feature in any yard and are designed to collect contaminated stormwater runoff, allowing it to infiltrate more slowly into the soil rather than flowing into and polluting nearby bodies of water. The New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services' Soak Up the Rain Program (SOAK) can give you information on Rain Gardens as well as other methods of reducing runoff @www4.des.state.nh.us/SOAKNH.

Maintaining an adequate supply of clean water is a cooperative effort among the State, the Town, and especially individual residents. By making deliberate choices in our homes, yards, and gardens, we can make a substantial contribution to protecting Londonderry's water resources.
