Bernie Sanders Makes Campaign Stop at Mack's Apple Farm Stand

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

In what was a typical New Hampshire cold and rainy Spring Day, the democratic Presidential hopeful, Bernie Sanders made a campaign stop in Londonderry, at a very crowded Mack's Apple Farm Stand.

He started out the rally by thanking local residents Kathy Wagner and Farm Stand owner Andy Mack, and went right in to tell folks attending, that is wasn't about him, "It's about you."

Sanders, who won the New Hampshire Democratic presidential Primary in 2016, spoke to a crowd of about 200 people at Mack's telling those gathered that, "Americans should work together to take care of each other."

Sanders spoke about high priced prescription drug costs, and said the only way prices will come

Town Council Approves Nearly $55,000 in Expenditures

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Monday, June 3, meeting of the Londonderry Town Council, members heard three requests for funding totaling almost $55,000.

The first of the expenditure requests was for a HVAC condenser at the Town Hall. Steve Cotton, Administrative Support Coordinator for the town explained that the exterior HVAC condenser developed a leak that requires the condenser to be replaced.

He added that the unit had been installed back in 2005, and the warranty has expired. The cost of the repair will be $3,899 for the parts and labor.

The council voted 4-0 in favor of the spending.

Next Cotton explained that he has reviewed the three entrances to Pleasantview Cemetery located on Mammoth Road near Litchfield Road and recommended re-paving the entrances.

After getting three bids, Cotton went with the middle bid of $14,548.

Councilor Tom Dolan asked Cotton if we had vandalism or is it just repairs?

Cotton responded, "I won't say vandalism, we have people who take plants off the graves, this happens especially at Pillsbury Cemetery as well. Hanging plants seem to be the number one targets."

Dolan expressed his distain for the vandalism and hoped that those doing it would be caught and prosecuted at the fullest extend of the law.

The $14,548 will be drawn from the Capital Reserve Fund for Cemetery Acquisitions, Maintenance and repairs fund.

The council once again voted 4-0 in favor of the spending.

Town Council Holds Off on Land Transfer Decision

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Town Council held a second Public Hearing on the matter of the transfer of Map 7, lot 40-13 from the Town of Londonderry to Vernco Apple, LLC, and heard from the Assistant Town Solicitor, Michael Malaguti on how to release the small section of property back to the current owner of the Appletree Mall.

Malaguti explained that in 1987 the owner of the land at the time, Shaw's Reality Company, quit claimed a small parcel of their land to the Town, which was intended to be used as a road. That tract is currently identified as lot 7-40-13.

The town would now like to deed it back to the current owner.

Malaguti also explained the both Conservation and the Planning Board were okay with the transfer.

Back on May 14, at the Conservation Commission meeting, the transfer was discussed with Amy Kizak, the Town's GIS Manger/Comprehensive Planner, reviewed the proposed access property release with the commission.

She said that when this was originally done the land was given to the Town for the potential for a road to be built and connected with Devonshire Lane. She explained that in the original deed the language stated that if a roadway was not built, the lot would revert back to the owner of Shaw's Plaza. She added that that a road would never be built, as there is a house there now where the roads would connect.

She also stated that before the town releases

Conservation to Host Event at Kendall Pond Property

MIKE BYERLY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Conservation Commission is hosting a public event on Saturday, June 22 at the Kendall Pond Conservation Area to unveil a variety of improvements made to the property over the past several months.

The improvements began last Fall with the reconfiguring and expansion of the parking lot at the site. Neighbors had highlighted that they saw suspicious activities occurring at the area, so when the Commission decided to expand the parking lot, they also moved it closer to the road and opened it up, so that cars and activities in the lot were clearly visible.

The hope was that this would be a deterrent, along with greater police patrols and the installation of surveillance cameras.

More recently, the Commission added a couple of new picnic tables constructed at low cost through a program with state department of corrections that has inmates work on carpentry projects.

In addition, a viewing platform overlooking Beaver Brook was added not far from the parking area. The platform was paid for by the Commission. The kiosk at the trailhead has also been refurbished. And trail maintenance was completed to remove brush and branches that were starting to encroach on the trail.

The event on the 22nd will run from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. Grilled hot dogs, cookies and beverages will be provided free of charge to attendees. There will be guided walks along the 1.2-mile flat loop trail at 11am and 1pm. Young children will have the option to participate in a nature scavenger hunt.

In other business, Amy Kizak, GIS Manager/Comprehensive Planner for Londonderry, trained the Commission on a mobile phone application called Explorer for ArcGIS. This free application connects to the town's GIS system allowing users to see town GIS maps on their phones.

The Commission will use Explorer as it monitors conservation properties in town. It has the ability to mark locations in the application and make notes that can then be shared with others.

The GIS maps can be used by anyone with the Explorer application by loading the LCC Monitoring Plan map. Kizak points out, however, that while the maps can be used for roughly finding boundaries and points of interest, the underlying maps should not be relied on for truly accurate property boundaries.

The Commission also started reviewing a wetland permit filed by the town with the state to modify a culvert located on Harvey Road. The culvert is located at the intersection of what will be phases 5 and 6 of the Rail Trail. The project would permanently impact 3,785 square feet of wetland and temporarily impact another 3,665 square feet.

The project is being planned in anticipation of someday widening Harvey Road and also to provide space for phase 6 of the Rail Trail starting at that location. One element of the project would line the metal culvert pipe with concrete.

The Commission expressed concern that the concrete would narrow the pipe in an area where Harvey Road has flooded in the past during periods of heavy rain. They fear that narrowing the pipe would lead to increased road flooding. They asked that John Trottier, Assistant Director of Public Works and Engineering for the town, come to their next meeting to discuss the project.

Commission member Mike Byerly shared that Londonderry Trailways has begun researching areas in town where new trails could be built that would create walkable connections between neighborhoods, conservation and recreation areas and town facilities. He said residents with ideas should feel free to contact him.

the deed, its needs to be presented to Heritage Commission, Conservation and Planning.

Gene Harrington, Vice Chair of Conservation made a motion to recommend returning the lot access property to expand their green space with native shrubs. Bob Maxwell seconded and the motion passed.

At the Planning Board meeting on May 8, Michael Malaguti, Prosecutor for the Town addressed the board. Malaguti said that this parcel was originally intend to be used as an extension of Orchard View Drive. He informed the planning board that one problem with this is that no extension appears to be forthcoming and there is a house that has been since built there. He stated that the parcel has been owned by the Town since 1981 and was epically acquired to extend. He stated that the parcel was acquired from Shaw's, when Shaw's owned the plaza and now they lease and that they have no ownership interest in the parcel. He said that the parcel was an easement permitting Shaw's to continue to use that parcel for any purpose as long as it was not being used as a public road. He said that the parcel was also subject to convenience or redeed to Shaw's or its successors in the event that the Town of Londonderry at anytime in the future determines that those premises are not to be used as a public road.

He informed the planning board that in 1984 Shaw's conveyed the larger tract to Appletree Mall

Associates where the easement was conveyed but not make specific reference to the redeed. He said that late last year discussion began to redeed the parcel as was required by the 1981 deed. He said that Shaw's agreed to cure the title problem of the unreleased covenant. He said this is being proposed with a two part transaction noting the first step Shaw's will release to the town any unreleased interest in the covenant that might continue to hold. He said that the second step would be for the Town proposing to a quit claim this tract to Vernco Apple, LLC that is the current of the plaza. He said this will accomplish the curing of the title and will also discharge the town's engagement under the original 1981 deed. He said this would also assist in the revitalization of the plaza and return the parcel to the tax base. He told the board that he was here before them tonight in pursuant to RSA 41:14-A stating "the selectman have the authority to acquire or sell land, buildings or both provide, however, that they shall first submit any set posed acquisition or sale to the Planning Board and Conservation Commission for review and recommendation. He said that the planning Department has requested that if this transaction dose gets approved that the owner agree to merge it voluntarily with the larger parent tract, which he stated the owner has agreed to.

At the Monday night Town Council meeting Malguti explained that a decision could be made until after 7-14 days of the second public hearing, giving the Town Council until June 17 to make a decision.

Councilor Ted Combs stated that, "It sounds like the Planning Board and the Conservation Commission are not on agreement on this."

Malaguti respond to Combes and stated that the Planning Board felt there was not planning use for the land and had no feeling way or the other and that conversation felt it should stay as green space. It is up to the council.

Councilor Tom Dolan made a motion to take the matter up at the June 17 meeting, which was approve unanimously.

Graduation Wishes

We all have defining moments in our lives that help shape our future. For the members of the Class of 2019, this moment marks the end of the last days of "childhood." While they may never have it so good again, the graduates are now officially on the path to building a life for themselves. They're on the doorstep of being on their own, responsible for their own decisions and for what becomes of their lives.

Pinkerton Academy holds its graduation on June 10, and Londonderry High School's ceremonies are on June 14, sending a multitude of students into the next phase of their lives. Graduation is an ending, no question, but its other name, commencement, perhaps says it better - it's a remarkable beginning.

From a parent's perspective, graduation is an in-your-face reminder of the passage of time. The trusting eyes of a newborn and the small hand held on the first day of school, now belong to a young adult - soon to wear a cap and gown and walk confidently across the Verizon Arena stage to accept a high school diploma.

We rarely see ourselves getting older until something momentous happens. There's no denying that hearing the name of your child announced as a member of the graduating class is one of those momentous occasions.

It's exciting - and it's serious business. The life we make for ourselves is up to each individual and it is precious. For both parents and students, graduation is a rite of passage - that's what all the robes and decorations and parties signify. It marks a transition - again for both student and parent - toward the rest of life. It is an exciting time and also a bit scary, new horizons are just around the corner.

Our advice to the graduates? Consider where you want to go, literally and metaphorically, as well as, where you've been. Think of what has brought you to this wonderful occasion. Be safe. Be bold. Mistakes are inevitable. But don't be afraid to take that leap into your dreams.

Congratulations to both parents and students, and the best of wishes for what lies ahead.

Special Counsel Bob Mueller's Report

To the editor,

Special Counsel Bob Muller's 438-page report of April 18 stated there was no evidence of Trump-Russia collusion and no clear evidence that Trump obstructed Mueller's investigation. After $35M two-year investigation, examination of thousands of documents, 100s of interviews, Mueller and his team of 18 Democrats including former HRC staff and FBI rogue agent Peter Strzok (until he was fired for his "insurance policy to stop Trump" came to light) could find no evidence of Trump-Russia collusion or obstruction of Mueller's investigation. Still, Democrats ignore the basic principle of our judicial system; innocent until proven guilty. Russia did attempt to influence the 2018 election, but Mueller didn't find that Trump colluded with Russia's attempts. There's a difference between "Russia influencing attempts" and "Trump colluding". I watched Muller's May 29 public statement about his investigation and wondered why he would come forth to restate what was already in his formal report for all to read. The answer is to placate his Democrat friends who were unhappy with his findings. His public statement oozed inuendo as a gift to Democrats to reignite their call for Trump's impeachment.

Mueller alluded that he could not charge Trump with a crime due to long-standing Justice Dept policies. He was alluding to the Office of Legal Counsel (Justice Dept's opinions office) policy that Special Counsel may not charge and remove a sitting President. It does not say Special Counsel cannot formulate charges to be adjudicated once the President is out of office. This Mueller did not do. Why? There were no crimes. Impeachment is never going to happen. House Democrats will not muster a plurality to impeach Trump and certainly majority Senate Republicans will veto any attempt. Nancy Pelosi, House Speaker, knows this and is trying to ignore some House Democrats call to impeach. If the House attempts to impeach and fails, there could be negative consequences for House Democrats who were marginally elected in 2018 on an anti-Trump agenda that gave majority control of the House to Democrats. These same Democrats could lose their seats as independent voters tire of Democrat obstructionism to Trump's agenda and vote these House members out of office in 2020 allowing Republicans to regain the House and passage of Trump's agenda. Losing the House would mean Pelosi loses her House leadership power which she covets. Attorney John Durham has been appointed by AG Bill Barr to investigate the origins of the Trump collusion investigation; what was the basis of the investigation, was it legal, who was involved in advancing the investigation, was there collusion at the highest levels of government to prevent Trump from becoming President or remove him from office under false accusations if elected. I hope that Durham's findings will finally put to rest this whole sordid episode dividing America, but doubt Democrats will accept the findings accusing Durham and AG Barr of covering for Trump. Can you imagine Democrats continuing their obstructionist policies to Trump's agenda of America 1st after Trump is re-elected in 2020? God forbid.

Clarification on Terminology

To the editor,

I want to clarify the terminology used in a story last week's paper. I was mentioned as a Vietnam Veteran. I am not. I am a Vietnam era veteran who served on active duty for 2 years - 1967-68. I was never deployed to Vietnam. That term belongs to those who actually were in Vietnam. Their service was much greater than mine.

Thank You

New England Women's Leadership Awards Honors Noelle Lambert

At Boys & Girls Clubs of Dorchester's 26th annual New England Women's Leadership Awards on May 9, Noelle Lambert was one of three honorees recognized as a role model to young girls in Dorchester and beyond. She was honored alongside Kenell Broomstein, Business Agent at IBEW Local 103 and Yvonne Garcia, Chief of Staff to the CEO at State Street Corporation. Each woman was selected due to her impressive accomplishments in her respective field and her ability to demonstrate to young girls that they too can achieve similar success. The event raised vital funds for Boys & Girls Clubs of Dorchester in its mission to inspire and enable all youth to reach their full potential.

Noelle Lambert is a recent graduate of UMass Lowell, where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice and a Minor in Psychology. A lifelong athlete, Noelle was a three-season athlete who played soccer, basketball and lacrosse, which ultimately led her to play lacrosse in college. As a college freshman, she excelled and was a top scorer in her first season playing for UMass Lowell. But in July 2016, Noelle was in a serious moped accident and lost her left leg above the knee. While many people in that situation might focus on what they could no longer do, Noelle thought only of what she was determined to do again: to be able to run once more and get back on the field with her team.

Recovery was not easy, but Noelle handled it with resilience and humor, always looking for ways to work toward a brighter future. Noelle progressed quickly in her recovery and was able to walk on her own with a prosthetic after just two weeks. Through intense physical therapy and her unwavering dedication, Noelle grew more determined with each milestone she passed. With the support of her friends, family and team, she seized the opportunity to play in her first game since the accident, and with 49 seconds left in the half, she scored her first goal.

Noelle founded the Born to Run Foundation, which donates specialized prosthetics to children and young adults who dream of leading a fun and fulfilling life. In January Noelle was presented with the Hero Among Us Award by the Boston Celtics for individuals who have made exceptional and lasting contributions to the community. Noelle currently has her sights set on the 2020 Paralympics in Tokyo and continuing to make a difference in others' lives through the Born to Run Foundation.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Dorchester would like to give special thanks to all of our honorees for the hard, dedicated work they provide to the community of Greater Boston and beyond. Their work encourages young girls to

Going Green: Recycling is Alive and Well in Londonderry - for Now

WASTE AND ENVIRONMENT
COMMITTEE

Good news for Londonderry residents: our "single-stream" blue bin recycling program is healthy and will remain so for years to come. Thanks to our current contract with Waste Management featuring automated pick up and our other recycling programs and public education efforts, we have reduced our trash output and increased our recycling rate, while keeping our costs down.

This process does rely on us, as residents to properly dispose of useful material in our recycling economy. You can find the list of acceptable items in the "Recycling Information" link under "Environmental Services - Solid Waste" on the Town's Public Works homepage @londonderry.org.

Recycling's new challenge

Why might we be concerned about our recycling program? Because recent news about recycling has been dire. For years China was the world's biggest importer of recycled material, but in 2017 they cut the amount of contamination allowed by almost 10-fold. This has put the burden on our recycling facilities - and therefore on communities like Londonderry - to ensure the high quality of our recyclables.

Some NH towns have reduced or even ended their recycling programs altogether. Due to increasing costs, curbside recycling in Franklin NH is now collected with trash and sent to an incinerator. Hooksett eliminated their curbside program last year, allowing recycling only at the transfer station. Last month their Town Council voted to eliminate all town recycling.

What you can do?

Although people are well-meaning, "wishful" recycling has led to contamination of our recycling stream by items such as greasy pizza boxes, unrinsed yogurt containers, plastic wrappers, etc. With contaminants in the mix, the good material is spoiled, or it becomes too costly to separate it out.

In the U.S., recyclables are separated by type of material and consolidated at Materials Recovery Facilities. These MRFs rely on complex machine-sorting by density, magnets, optical sorters and screens. So it is vital that we avoid putting plastic bags of recyclables in our blue recycling bins. Plastic film of all types clogs the MRF machinery, causing it to shut down and require expensive maintenance and repair.

Why is recycling important? It goes back to the simple principle of physics that matter cannot be created or destroyed, only changed in form. We are constantly consuming materials, but when our original use is complete, recycling can put that matter back in play in another useful form. Once we throw it in a landfill, matter is just a wasted resource. Our planet has a finite amount of resources that must be preserved, so the best option is to recycle whenever possible.

In Londonderry, we benefit from the foresight of our Public Works officials who negotiated a long-term contract with Waste Management that avoids the cost fluctuations that other towns are seeing. Our recycling program is currently robust. As long as Londonderry residents continue to practice good stewardship and recycle properly, it will remain so.

Mayo Valedictorian, Chakraborty Salutatorian At LHS

MIKE BYERLY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

LHS class valedictorian, Jocelyn Mayo, said that her cousin got her started watching true crime documentaries. That eventually got her hooked on the idea of becoming a crime scene investigator. Mayo is headed on scholarship to the University of West Virginia (WVU) to major in forensic and investigative science.

WVU offers several specializations within the major. Hoping to eventually work out in the field, Mayo intends to start with a focus on the examiner track and possibly add in the chemistry track.

Mayo has a strong interest in community service as evidenced by her focus at LHS outside of academics. She was the Historian of the Community Service Club (CSC), handling correspondence and meeting minutes.

The CSC helps many organizations including the Upper Room, Sunshine Soup Kitchen, Toys for Tots, Beautify Londonderry and the Londonderry Senior Center. Mayo said that her favorite volunteer effort was the MDA Muscle Walk held at Delta Dental Stadium in Manchester where she and others helped organize teams and lay out the route.

Mayo was also elected as the Historian for the Londonderry chapter of the National Honor Society, which primarily focuses on community service, done either as an individual or as a group.

Early in her high school years, Mayo played softball and basketball, but looking to stay in sports without dedicating so much time to them, she switched to the unified sports program at LHS. Unified sports mix students with intellectual handicaps with non-disabled students to play competitive sports. Mayo played on the basketball, soccer and track teams.

Mayo is the daughter of Mark and Karen Mayo. Her sister Lexi will be a junior at UNH after graduating seventh in her LHS class.

Jocelyn Mayo, LHS Valedictorian

In ninth grade, senior class salutatorian Urvi Chakraborty thought she wanted to be a graphic designer. Then she joined the robotics club at LHS, fell in love with it and developed the confidence and passion to pursue engineering.

That passion culminates in her heading to Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech) in Atlanta to start her studies in aerospace engineering. As a senior she was the lead electrician for the club, a role that included teaching underclassmen the ropes.

During middle school, Chakraborty, daughter of Ujjal and Lopamudra Chakraborty, attended the Academy for Science and Design charter school in Nashua before enrolling at LHS. At the high school she was a four-year member of the math team and VP and President of the International Club.

Lest you think her interests are all about technology, Chakraborty is equally interested in and involved with the arts. At five years old she tried ballet but did not like it. However, while at the studio she saw one of the instructors doing classical Indian dancing. She was enamored of it and started taking classes in Odissi, one of the pre-eminent classical dance forms of India which originated in the Hindu temples of the eastern coastal state of Odisha. She has continued for the past eleven years and hopes to continue in college.

Chakraborty has also taken a few art classes at LHS and says that when she is bored, she likes to draw. She has also been taking karate for several years, achieving the level of junior black belt. She plans to continue with it in college and perhaps try mixed martial arts.

Urvi Chakraborty, LHS Salutatorian

In addition to Georgia Tech, Chakraborty was also accepted to the University of Illinois, Purdue University and Worcester Polytechnic University.

Historical Society Holds Second Annual Antique Appraisal Event

ANN CHIAMPA
CURATOR, LONDONDERRY
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

On a Sunday that started out with rain showers, and turned out to be a wonderful afternoon, the Londonderry Historical Society's hosted its second annual Antiques Appraisal Day at the Morrison House Museum property on Pillsbury Road.

The event was advertised to starting at 1 p.m. on Sunday, May 26, but with so many folks arriving just after noontime to check-in their antiques, collectibles, and family treasures, the society pushed open the tall, heavy, red and white doors of the c.1859 Parmenter Barn much earlier than expected to accommodate them all.

After Society member David Colglazier checked in each attendee's items, they were given a number indicating where their items were in the lineup to be appraised. They could then either take a seat and keep their items with them until their number was called, or place their items on tables specially set aside to safely hold their larger items, sets, or their more delicate treasures to be appraised. And again, like last year, we offered a refreshment table with dessert tiers and beverages for our visitors to enjoy gratis throughout the day.

New this year was a sound system, lent to the group by LACTV, so that everyone attending, even at the back of the barn, could hear all the information gleaned from the appraisals.

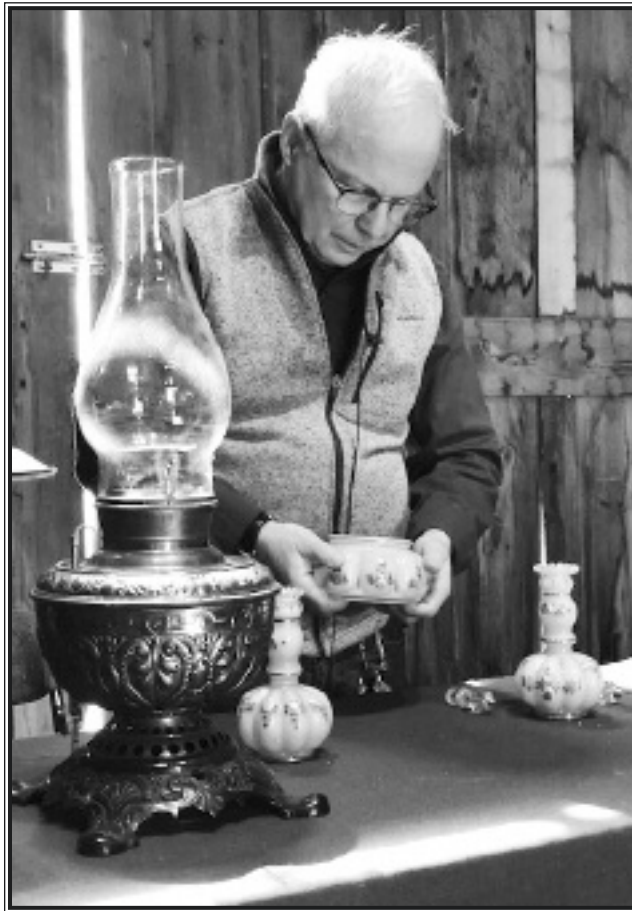

After a brief mention about the grounds and buildings, and the society's mission to preserve the history of Londonderry, I was honored to introduce Daniel F. Reidy, returning for his second year as appraiser for this event. Mr. Reidy has quite the background in antiques, as former owner of White Birch Antiques in Goffstown, as an auctioneer for 30 years, and as curator of the Goffstown Historical Society's collections before moving back to his hometown of Manchester.

He currently owns an estate appraisal and disposition planning business known as Discerning Eye, where he assists individuals and families in the appraisal of and disposition options for the contents of their or their loved ones homes. His motto: "Making Dollars and Sense of Your Treasures".

Here's a look at some of the items he appraised:

One piece of furniture that we couldn't help smiling at was a hand-carved Black Forest whimsy board chair c.1900. It was one from a set of six, each having a different face carved into its backrest. This jolly one was grabbing a bottle of Mumm!

Then came some terrific examples of 19th century Masonic Knights Templar regalia in a well-worn, colorfully inscribed c.1878 brown leather case. Inside were numerous ceremonial items including a handsomely trimmed bicorn hat with black ostrich feathers and accompanying sash, apron, cap and gloves which made for a magnificent presentation.

A mid 20th century Marx O-gauge lithographed tin "Army Supply Train" in its original box was followed by a very large camphor wood chest with a nicely detailed, relief-carved ship motif which, because of its weight and size, was appraised from the back of the owner's pickup truck.

Also seen during the afternoon was a family's charming set of three English wooden walking sticks; a vintage pink glass dresser set with a painted floral design, along with a very tall, ornately embossed brass and copper kerosene lamp with stand; an amusing glazed ceramic McCoy "Bunch of Bananas" cookie jar which looked in perfect condition; a gentleman's 1700's New England chair table appraised using photographs, and a Matchbox car collection and case that after appraisal was then sold right on site to a new owner!

I can't forget to mention the two sets of treasures that were brought up for appraisal earlier in the afternoon, one set which bears special significance to Londonderry. The young woman opened up a small box and took out three of the most delicate wooden, simply but colorfully dressed peasant-style marionettes. We were taken aback by the expressions on their tiny faces and the details in their clothing and accessories. Just previous to that she brought forth a 19th century china head doll originally owned by a relative, little Nellie Wallace of Londonderry, along with a number of sets of doll clothes that were handmade by Nellie and her mother more than a century ago. Later in the afternoon the woman indicated that she would like to donate the doll and clothing to the Londonderry Historical Society, so I asked if the items could be accompanied by some family history to enrich the story of the doll and its young owner. What history the woman uncovered in these last two weeks.

We've decided that the story of Nellie, her precious doll and her family history will be told in a special display to be set up at our c.1760 Morrison House Museum this summer, along with the clothing, accompanying trunk, photos, newspaper articles, a family portrait and other items related to her story. We'll let you know when the "opening" of the display is, all made possible by this generous donor we met at our Second Annual Antiques Appraisal Day!

We'd like to thank all of you who came out to support the Londonderry Historical Society, with a special thanks to appraiser Daniel F. Reidy, who donated his time for this event. Helping from the Historical Society were members John Savina, Kay Webber and Kims Bringham, and Kirsten Hildonen, who provided technical assistance.

Yes, it turned out to be quite a wonderful afternoon and we hope to see a large crowd again, and many new faces, at the Londonderry Historical Society's Third Annual Antiques Appraisal Day next year.

History of Beer and Ale Brewing? in New Hampshire

Londonderry Historical Society presents Glenn Knoblock's program on the fascinating history of New Hampshire's beer and ale brewing industry on Tuesday June 18 at 7 p.m. at the Historical Society's Parmenter Barn, 140 Pillsbury Rd., Londonderry. This program is sponsored by the New Hampshire Humanities Council and admission is free. Following the program Lon-donderry's own Long Blue Cat Brewery will be offering free samples of some of its beers.

Knoblock will explore the history of brewing from colonial days, when it was home-and tavern-based, to today's modern breweries and brewpubs. Unusual and rare photos and advertisements document this changing industry and the state's earliest brewers, including the renowned Frank Jones. A number of lesser known brewers and breweries that operated in the state are also discussed, including the only brewery owned and operated by a woman before the modern era.

We are so excited to share that Londonderry Historical Society has been selected to be a part of the Shaw's Give Back Where It Counts Reusable Bag Program, which is designed to make it easy for customers to contribute to their local community while supporting the environment.

For the month of June, each time a $2.50 reusable Back Where Give It Counts Bag is purchased at the Shaw's located at 1 Orchard View Drive, Londonderry, $1 will be donated to Londonderry Historical Society, unless otherwise directed by the customer through the Giving Tag. This is a great way to raise awareness, support the environment and fundraise for our cause.

Let's get started! We can begin by spreading the news to our friends and family. Call, send emails, and post on social media. The more people who learn about the program and purchase the Give Back Where It Counts Bag during the month of June, the more money we will raise. To learn more about this program, please visit shawsbags4mycause.com.

June Meeting, Tuesday, June 18, at 5:30 p.m. The LHS monthly meeting will be held in the Parmenter Barn.

Open House: Sunday, June 23, noon - 3 p.m., 140 Pillsbury Rd, Londonderry.

down is by the voice of the American people, "Real change happens when millions of Americans stand up and demand change."

The senator addressed the idea of term limits by say, "If you have a vibrant democracy, not having billionaires buying elections, and not having governors, like the Governor of New Hampshire trying to suppress the vote, you have term limits because the incumbent doesn't have an outrageous advantage," but he went on to say he was not in favor of term limits.

Sanders went after President Donald Trump for his position on climate change, saying, "The president has to be out of his mind to think climate change is a hoax."

Before Sanders took to the stage, Andy Mack Sr. took to the stage also addressing the climate change issue, wondering if the world would be able to overcome the issue.

Sanders main theme during the stop in Londonderry was about the voters, "We have to start worrying about each other, and working together for a common good."

He went between fielded questions from the audience and making his own statements during the campaign stop, the subjects ranged from his thoughts on universal healthcare for all, credit card dept, immigration and the threat of war in the Middle East.

Sanders also told attendees he would protect a woman's right to have access to abortion services, saying no one should be telling women how to make health care decisions.

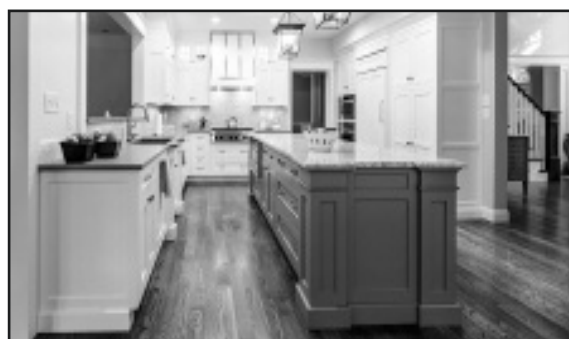

"For me, there will be a litmus test: I will never nominate anybody to the Supreme Court who is not in support of Roe v. Wade," Sanders said.

He ended by saying the average American worker is making what they did about 43 years ago. "That's not progress," he said, "the fear is, that kids will have a lower standard of living than their parents."

Sanders told the crowd that his campaign has over one million volunteers already, and hopes to continue with that strength.

Lancer Volleyball Teams Chip In at Kent Allen Forest

With The Lancers Volleyball season over, the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams provided some community service to Kent and Meredith Allen in the Town Forest. They helped the Allen's with clearing and piling up debris that Kent had cut up earlier in the week. They also planted a shrub along one of the many walking paths in the forest. This was the second straight year the boys have chipped in with beautifying the area behind the Town Common.

Derry Rotary Clubs Recognize Veterans with Annual Barbecue

MACK LEATHURBY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Derry Rotary and the Derry Village Rotary Clubs held their ninth annual Veterans Recognition Dinner on Thursday, May 30 at the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Derry. The event room was at near full capacity as more than 300 area veterans and their families were honored at this appreciation barbecue.

Craig Bulkley, of Derry was the Master of Ceremonies at the event and he requested Derry Police Chief, and club member, Edward Garonne, lead the attendees for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Garonne mentioned during the event, "The appreciation veterans show to event organizers is always humbling, and this event and the donations to make this event happen are due to efforts by Rotary Club members and the others in the community. It is really hard work and determination by a lot of people in the community to recognize our Veterans that make this event possible."

Bulkley, then introduced featured speaker Lieutenant Gen. Ronald Coleman.

Coleman explained that he was excited to be at the event and had signed up to come to the event over one year ago.

Coleman said, "I had a friend who has been going to this Derry Veterans Recognition Barbeque for years who asked me to come to this event one year ago and I couldn't come at that time, so I put this event on my calendar for this year. This Veterans Recognition Dinner event is important for all of us veterans and I am so very glad to be here."

"I am so proud to be

Lieutenant Gen. Ronald Coleman was the guest speaker of the event this year. Photos by Chris Paul an American and that I had an opportunity of military service for my country. This is the best country in the world."

Lt. Gen. Coleman is a U.S. Marine and only the second African-American to reach the rank of three-star General. Coleman is a Vietnam Veteran who also served with the U.S. Navy in Da Nang from 1968 to 1970. During his 35-year career with the Marines, Coleman had duty in Okinawa, Japan, the Pentagon, the Balkan region, Iraq, and Haiti.

Buckley, honored all of the veterans in attendance with thanks for their service and introduced Mark Brassard, who provided the prayer blessing before the dinner.

Attendees at the barbecue included veterans, both men and women, who fought in World War II, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, the Afghan war, and the Iraq war, as well as other global conflicts.

Rick Holmes, from Derry, is a Vietnam War Vet who said, "I came into the military in 1969 and found myself soon in Vietnam. Our time after the war was a difficult one as many of us were not recognized for our efforts to defend our country, so I am proud to be here tonight with other Vietnam Vet friends and we were proud to fight for our country."

World War II Vet, Joseph Feole, is the father of Police Captain George Feole of Derry and he remembered his time fighting to defend our country's freedoms in 1944 when he was part of the American forces that liberated Italy. Feole remembered that he began his military service not long after the D-Day invasion in France by the Allies.

This week happens to be the anniversary of D-Day and it is a special time to remember our Vets, many of whom died that day while fighting against Nazism and Fascism. The "Greatest Generation" of Veterans helped re-establish freedoms with their blood, sweat and tears defending their homeland and liberating our European allies.

This memory lives on as June 6 marks that start of the 75th anniversary of the D-Day landings and the battle of Normandy.

After the dinner, attending veterans were given a fleece jacket.

Lancer Baseball Gets Two Wins Reaches Division I Semifinal

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

In search of their seventh Division I finals appearance, the first since 2014, Londonderry High School's Varsity Baseball team made strides to that lofty goal with two tournament wins at home last week and a trip to the semis.

The fourth seeded Lancers started the tourney on Thursday, May 30, when they hosted the 13th seeded Spaulding High School squad and had 10 hits, en route to a 10-3 win. Londonderry scored five times in the first inning and added five more runs in the fifth in that game. Brandon Fish led the Lancers with four RBIs, while Reece Manor provided three singles and drove in two runs. Nolan Lincoln pitched a complete game, allowing just three earned runs and eight hits, striking out seven batters.

Next, in a much bigger challenge, Londonderry hosted the fifth seeded Pinkerton Academy Astros on Saturday, June 1, for a quarterfinals game that ended with a 4-1 Lancers win.

Londonderry, who had already beat Pinkerton in Derry earlier this season, almost scored in the first inning, but a great catch by Brady Day from the Astros led to a double play. The Lancers did eventually get on the board first, in the fourth inning, with a Luke Marsh RBI single, but Asa Runge tied the game in the next inning with a home run.

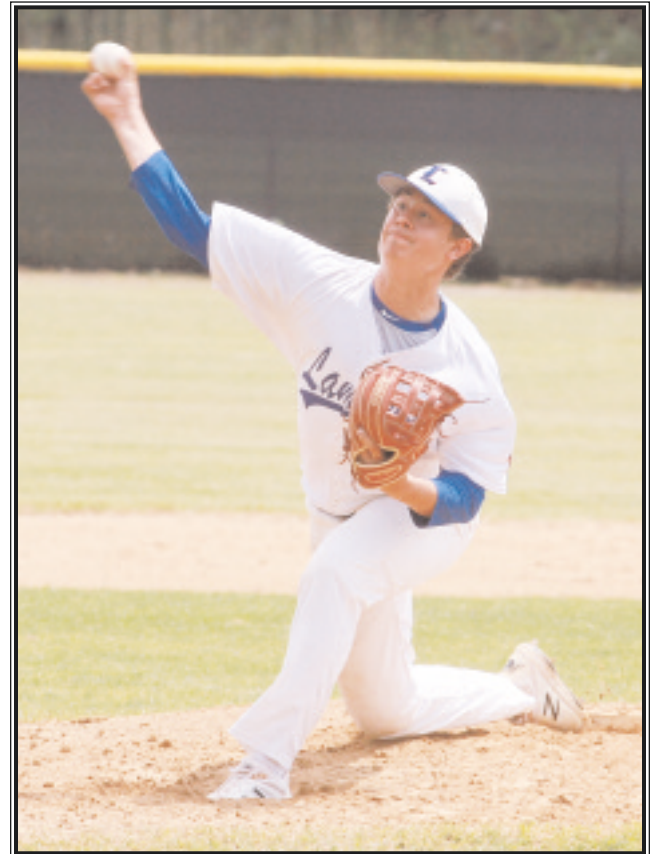

Londonderry retook the lead quickly, in the bottom of the inning, after some miscues in Pinkerton's defense that allowed Jack Dingman to run all the way from first base to home. Then, a bunt and a sacrifice fly in the sixth inning helped Londonderry score twice more in the sixth, before Manor, with a terrific performance on the mound (complete game, five strikeouts), finished things off.

"It was two good pitchers going at it", said coach Brent Demas. "Give all credit to Reece. He is a senior pitcher and he did what he had to do. And give credit to Richard Marique, who pitched great for Pinkerton. The guys have been fighting bats all year and didn't panic. Pinkerton is a great team."

Manor added, "It feels great. We did it earlier in the season, but this is so much better, winning on your field, sending your biggest rivals home, moving on to the next round."

The semifinal contest was scheduled to be played on Tuesday, June 4, after the Londonderry Times went to print, the Lancers will face the Division I top seed, Concord at Holman Stadium in Nashua. If the Lancers win, they will play for the title on Monday, June 10, at 7 p.m. at the Fisher Cats stadium in Manchester against either Portsmouth or Bedford.

Lancer senior Reece Manor pitched a complete game and gave up only one run against Pinkerton on Saturday in Londonderry.

LHS Boys Lacrosse Team Loses to PA in Tourney Quarterfinals

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

According to the Londonderry High School's Boys' Varsity Lacrosse team's coach, Roger Sampson, his boys were capable of more of a better record and a better seeding. But the Lancers finished with a 10-7 record, and entered the NHIAA Division I play-offs as the seventh seed and had the overwhelming task of having to face the number two seed, Pinkerton Academy, at home on their newly resurfaced field on Saturday afternoon, June 2. That meeting ended the LHS season with a discouraging 21-8 loss. Londonderry knew it would be a tough challenge, and was able to put up a good fight to start the game, but Pinkerton's dominance quickly proved to be too much for the Lancers. The Astros took a 5-1 lead before Londonderry scored twice to make things interesting. The home team answered with five straight goals and led 14-5 at the half, a deficit that was too big for Londonderry to close in the next 24 minutes. Londonderry got three goals on six shots from senior Anthony Federico. Cole Keegan scored twice and had one assist and Zach Fawcett scored twice more. Blake Melnik finished with one goal, Ross Carroll made two saves and Connor Gramstorff three. After the game, Coach Sampson lamented, "We practiced hard all week, made some adjustments and the three lines worked, but we just created too many turnovers and the face-offs killed us. They have the best face-off guy in the state and we tried different things, but it didn't work. And we couldn't stop the 20-yard shots, because they have shooters and depth that we don't. Hopefully, we can rebuild next year. We lost 14 seniors."

Four Boys Represented Londonderry in Tennis Tourney

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School's Varsity Tennis teams sent four boys to last week's first round of the State Open Championship, held at Pinkerton Academy. On Saturday, June 1, two Lancers participated in the singles tournament. Londonderry's number 1 player this season, Cam Ness, managed to win his first round match against Jack Dillow from St. Thomas High School, eight games to three, before he lost to the top seed Jason Boucher of Bedford, 8-2. Camden Poitras also advanced from the first round, with an 8-3 win over Joseph Morrell from Oyster River. In the next round, Poitras was eliminated by the second seed, Seb Tonini from Pinkerton Academy, who won 8-1. The next day, Ness and Jay Hayes lost their first round doubles match to Hanover (the sixth seed), 8-2. Poitras doubled with Tanner Fortier and they lost 8-0 to the eighth seeds, from Souhegan.

LHS Girls Lacrosse Team Can't Keep Up With PA in First Round

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Girls' Varsity Lacrosse team knew it would take something special to bring down the number one seeded rivals, Pinkerton Academy, in the first round of the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Associations Division I playoffs on Wednesday, May 29, and the Lady Astros proved to be just too much for too long and LHS lost 19-6 at the hands of their rivals. That loss put an end to an extremely up-and-down season for the Lady Lancers.

The Pinkerton girls scored two quick goals to start things off on their newly resurfaced home field, but Londonderry answered with two of its own goals to tie the game.

That goal, early on in the first half, unfortunately, was the last time that this game was close, as the home team finished the half with a 10-1 run, to take a promising 10 point lead, at 13-3.

In the second half, the Astros slowed the pace considerably, as they played a less aggressive game, with a lot of passing. With that, they were still able to beat Londonderry quite handily for the third time this season, each of the games ending in a double-digits margin in favor of Pinkerton.

In the Maddy Walden scored two of Londonderry's goals and Sarah Durate had two more. Grace Chicko finished with one goal and two assists and Hannah McCutcheon also had one goal. Lauren Doherty provided an assist and goalie Morgan Brutus made seven saves.

Pinkerton went on to also dominate the fifth seeded Souhegan High School girls 16-5 in the semi-finals, and will face Bishop Guertin in the championship game on Wednesday, June 5, at Southern New Hampshire University, after the Londonderry Times went to press.

Londonderry's last visit to the finals was about a decade ago. Between 2008 and 2011 the Lady Lancers brought home three titles.

Despite Londonderry best effort to try and slow down the scoring of the Pinkerton offense, the Astros walked away with a 21-8 loss. Photo by Chris Paul

LONDONDERRY TIMES

In what may very well be the longtime coach-
Les final season as the Londonderry High School's Varsity Softball team, Wayne MacDougall his Lady Lancers bounced in the first round of the State Championship on Wednesday, May 29, at Merrimack in a close 5-3 loss.

The Lady Lancers entered the contest as the ninth seed, while the Tomahawks were ranked eighth in the Division I Tournament, got to host the meeting.
That contest had a rather slow beginning, starting an hour late, after one of the umpires did not show up in time.
The home team scored first, in the opening inning, after an error allowed a runner to get on base and a fielder's choice sent her home.

The Londonderry squad answered in the second inning with a single by Aliceyn Lacey that plated two runs making it a 2-1 game.
The Lady Lancers kept their slim one-run lead until the fourth inning, when Merrimack was able to tie the game with a run in that frame.

A double by Alyssa Vaillancourt gave Londonderry the lead again in the top of the fifth inning, but Merrimack once again swung their way back into the game, scoring once in the bottom of that inning and taking the lead for good with a two-run sixth inning.

Londonderry Team Qualifies for U10 Softball World Series

IDAN VINITSKY
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry Athletic Fields Association (LAFA) Under 10 Softball team was the big winner of a recent state tournament and earned the right to play in this year's Babe Ruth World Series in Treasure Coast, FL in August.
There were 25 teams in three different age groups participating in the state tournament, which was held in Londonderry, and the local team won each one of its seven games, outscoring their opponents 74 to seven.

In the Pool Play, Lon-donderry's team enjoyed three-straight no-hitters, thrown by three different pitchers.

This was the third time in the fifteen-year history of the qualifying tournament that a team from Londonderry has won the championship and if they were able to travel to Florida, it would be the second time that happens. The team is now looking for donations that will make this trip a reality and opened a GoFundMe page. The cost of the trip is approximately $20,000.

The team's roster includes: Caleigh Aguiar, Vivien Belanger, Addison Browning, Regan Burns,

OBITUARY

David Keller

David Karl Keller, 68 of Londonderry, NH died Friday May 24, 2019 at the Community Hospice House in Merrimack, NH. Born Jan. 31, 1951 in Grayslake, IL to the late Paul and Juanita (Jones) Keller, David was the loving husband to Pamela (Frey) Keller of Manchester, NH.

The proud owner of Maxwell Street Labradors of Londonderry, specializing in the breeding of English-type Labrador Retrievers, David was employed at The Home Depot in Londonderry, NH as a MET team member. He was a member of the Labrador Retriever Club of Greater Boston and the Boston Museum of Fine Art.

Prior to breeding his beloved labs, David had a varied career, including working for the Department of Defense, being Vice President of Northeast Operations for Wells Fargo Bank in NYC, and working as a Management Consultant for tech companies such as Sun Micro-systems. When the tech industry crashed, David reinvented himself and became an OTR tractor-trailer driver.

David's interests were as varied as his careers. With a legendary love of music, he was a musician who played guitar and bass, sang lead for a number of professional bands in his youth, and introduced everyone he loved to wonderful music. He was also a lifelong student of religion who, in his 20s, founded his own church, Koinania. He then converted to Judaism and continued his interest in religious studies, culminating in a trip to Israel last October. David had a passion for computers, astrophysics, philosophy, art, blues music, and his dogs.

Besides his loving wife, David is survived by six children, Sean Paul Keller and his partner, Ena Schasteen, of Oregon; David Andrew Keller and his wife, Jennifer Berg, of Encinitas, CA; Sonya Christina Keller and her wife, Kelly Patterson, of Sebastopol, CA; Solomon David Keller of Manchester, NH; Seattle Robin Keller of Johnson City, NY; and Sabra Tantara Keller of Tokyo, Japan; two grandchildren, Guinevere Lee Berg of San Diego, CA and Marina Drew Keller of Portland, OR; one brother, William Keller of Chloride, AZ; and one sister, Diana Barron of Grayslake, IL.

There will be a memorial gathering at Temple Beth Abraham, 4 Raymond St., Nashua, NH on Sunday, June 23, at 1:30 p.m. In lieu of flowers, for those who wish, donations may be made in David's memory to the ALS Association of Northern New England, 10 Ferry St., # 438, Concord, NH 03301 or <http://webnne.alsa.org>. The Davis Funeral Home, 1 Lock St., Nashua, is in charge of arrangements. An online guest-book is available at www.davisfuneralhomenh.com. (603) 883-3401. "ONE MEMORY LIGHTS ANOTHER".
