Hot Enough for You?

The basil plants in the garden were as healthy as they could be until they burned in the 90 plus degree heat. The temperatures were pleasant and perfect for sitting outside until we began the summer and goodness knows we all wanted out of the house. But no one wanted over 90 degree temps with the added bonus of dew point levels in the 70s - can you say humid.

The occasional thunderstorm and lightning show, or a brief but heavy rain never provided much in the way of a soaking. A heavy layer of pollen also added to our summer season. Well that's the kind of summer it's been - hot and humid. If we didn't know better, we would think we were in Mississippi.

When you consider that Rockingham County is officially termed a "drought" area, it's been about as hot and miserable a summer as we've had in years. It's enough to make us look longingly at the maples whose tops are beginning to turn colors, wondering whether that's fall coming on or just the endless dry spell. Unfortunately this dry spell is predicted to continue into autumn as well.

Not to mention the addition of worrying about the COVID pandemic this summer. Being at the beach, lake, or pretty much any out door activity this summer has been challenging. Nevertheless it is still better than being trapped inside.

A few weeks ago, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Climate Prediction Center said for the next three months, above average temperatures are forecast for everywhere in the U.S. - including Alaska. They said 2020 is on track to be one of the hottest years ever.

So whether you accept climate change as a scientific fact or prefer it to be a political football, it's hard to deny the Earth is getting warmer weather patterns. These last few weeks are giving us a good indication of how that translates into our daily lives.

That doesn't necessarily mean a cold winter isn't in our future. The sun is setting earlier, the acorns are beginning to tumble down from the trees, and school begins, in one form or another, in just a couple of weeks. You may be still driving to the beach as often as possible, but that doesn't mean you aren't also keeping an eye on the pumpkin vines.

This being New England, even as we complain about the heat and humidity, we know the days of ice and snow will inevitably follow. We're fortunate to have a chance to experience all four seasons, each unique, each intense. Not one of our seasons is boring, after all we New Englanders need something to chat about and weather is always a good topic.

So enjoy the last weeks of summer, and don't rush them. Fall will be here soon enough and then comes winter.

Response to Mr. Homsey

To the editor,

In response to the letter by Mr. Homsey, I wish to thank him for enlightening ma as to how little I know even though I lived during the terrible polio epidemic years. I knew of individuals who suffered from this lifetime crippling disease which went on for over a ten or more year period before a vaccine was found

The schools, theatre's, outdoor public pools that I attended never closed although some precautions were posted. Then again if must be right and I have poor memory.

I'm o glad you gave a dissertation and enlightened me once again as to how the China Virus (sorry COVID 19) is transmitted. Guess I was wrong once again and not too bright in daring to compare a crippling lifetime disease to the present virus.

Having raised five children and now have a bunch of grandkids, they were all taught proper hygiene after outdoor playing, and before meals. Now I', concerned that I might have missed on occasion and now the whole family is Historical Society needs exposed. I'll try to be more diligent like you in the future.

Presidential Abuse of Power

To the editor,

President Trump has shown how fragile our democracy is when we have a president who abuses his power and threatens the Constitution of the United States.

During protests in June Trump wanted to deploy 10,000 troops from the 82nd airborne division and other units to Washington D.C. to squelch the protests. The rational thinking and recommendations of Defense Secretary Esper; Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Milley; and Attorney General Barr avoided the deployment.

Trump abused his power when he asked the Ukrainian President to interfere in our election, and Trump was subsequently punished with impeachment by the House of Representatives. Trump asked China's President, Xi Jinping, to help him in the 2020 election.

Trump commuted convicted criminal Roger Stone's sentence and interfered with the sentencing of other friends. Attorney General Barr said Trump's tweets were interfering with Department Justice cases.

One 50,000 square-foot warehouse and a 40,500 square-foot truck terminal for a locally-based company.

The truck terminal portion of the project is proposed for a hub for Loomis Armored US operations, which will also support the company's training needs. The Loomis is based in Londonderry and wishes to stay in town, however, it requires an upgraded building to suit its needs. This includes adequate parking, which would be in access of the town requirement.

There are also several public drainage easements with stormwater basins, as well as a navigation easement over the entire property due to the proximity of the airport. Upper Room Continues to Provide the Same Services 34 Years Later

The Upper Room, a of its current staff. Family Resource Center has been alive since July of 1986, when co-founders Anna Willis and Claire Hamilton came together to realize a dream of creating a resource center where families could access help in a safe, warm atmosphere. Believing that parenting its children in a positive manner is a crucial role of family, the first item on their agenda was to put together a parenting education program. It was followed closely by parenting for teen moms, targeting teen women needing support and skills building, and then by adding programs addressing the needs of youth exhibiting various risk behaviors. Anna and Claire made the early decisions which continue to frame the day to day decisions, and work

This year the entire staff shared a planning day together in June, and part of that day was reviewing the history of the agency. Through this deep and engaging discussion, the team explored the relationships, the early seeds that were planted and the humility that The Upper Room has shown over the years. A place where there is no tolerance for judgement, the team of individuals who choose The Upper Room as their place of employment come to work to make change, to move individuals and families to where they feel their potential is.

This week, Claire Hamilton paid a phone visit to Brenda Guggisberg, complimenting the organization's website, and all that is happening within the agency. The two were able to speak of the agency, it's mission and work now. Claire Hamilton has continued to support The Upper Room through her guidance, calls and through her attendance at events such as our annual auction. "This call was meaningful", states Guggisberg, "as we enter in to a unique and complicated time having a call from Claire really hit home for me, gave me grounding and could not have come at a better time".

The center is a warm, welcoming place where families receive information and support not only in times of crisis but on a day-to-day basis. There are no boundaries on service, and help id given to all seeking support. For more information, call (603) 437-8477, or visit our website at URteachers.org.

> Registered As Nurse, I know we need to remove regulations around health insurance to encourage more insurers to come to NH and offer a wider variety of policies. Some of the collateral damage of expensive health insurance is that specialists don't want to practice in our state because they find the insurance regulations onerous. This has created extensive wait lists and lack of access to specialized care. We want to attract more specialists to our state who can provide quality care for our citizens instead of forcing them to go out of state treatment. More needs to happen.

Coronavirus Whittles Old Home Day Down to Two Events

LONDONDERRY TIMES

7ith the community still feeling the effects of the Coronavirus, the Pandemic has forced the cancellation of a great many things.

Each August, Londonderry residents usually celebrate Old Home Day as a five-day event, giving people a chance to gather and enjoy a multitude of activities.

This year the event has been cut to just two events: the annual fireworks display and the Enterprise Bank Boot Scootin' Boogie 5K. The race, which replaced the Lundgren 5K last year, is put on by a private company, Millennium Mile Running, and also features a Beer Garden drinking event after the

The fireworks display will be fired from behind the Middle School near the Londonderry High School on Saturday night, Aug. 15, at dusk, and spectators watch from their vehicles at a number of locations. A rain date is scheduled for the following evening, on Sunday Aug.16.

The race will start at the Londonderry Athletic Field Complex, on Sargent Road, with staggered race starting times beginning at 2 p.m.

According to the Millennium Mile website, in regard to the health and safety of race participants, volunteers, and staff, it states that it is the most important aspect of the event. "Our team at Millennium Running helped spearhead the implementation of guidelines published by Governor Sununu, Task Force for road races in the State of New Hampshire. Millennium Running will continue to ensure all safety procedures at our events are followed to protect our running community."

This event will utilize a time trial start format that will facilitate social distancing for the entirety of the event. Participants will be seeded based off their self-submitted paces. Athletes will start one-by-one in a time-trial format, 10 seconds after one another. Participants will be assigned a dedicated start time along with specific times for parking, check-in time and report to corral time.

The estimated Start (based Times pace/seed times) are:

- 2 to 2:30 p.m.: 9:21 pace/mile or faster (29::00 finisher time or faster)

pace/mile pace/mile (29:00-33:38 finisher time)

- 3 to 3:30 p.m.: 10:51 pace/mile 12:42 pace/mile (33:38-39:24 finisher time)
- 3:30 to 4 p.m.: 12:42 pace/mile+ - (39:24+ finisher time)

The exact start times will be assigned through email with bib number assignment two days prior to the event.

All spectators are being asked to abide by social distancing guidelines and avoid congregating at the start/finish line areas.

Bib Pick-up can be done before race day at the Millennium Running Retail Store in Bedford. On Race Day, they can be picked up from 12:30 to 4 p.m. at at the Londonderry Athletic Field Complex on Sargent Road.

Parking will be available at the Londonderry High School, Matthew Thornton Elementary School, Londonderry Middle School and the Londonderry Town Offices

After the race, there will be a Beer Garden event where people can redeem beer tickets in the beer garden. Additional beer tickets are available for purchase. There will also be food • 2:30 to 3 p.m.: 9:22 trucks and vendors sell-

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our total satisfaction. Only then should you proceed at your own risk. We try to screen ads that require you to send money before receiving a product or service. But these efforts are no substitute for your own investigation, and we don't endorse or guarantee any claims made in any of the ads we publish. If you want more information about claims made in ads on subjects such as work at home opportunities, travel or vacation specials, purchasing land or vehicles from government surplus or below wholesale, loans or other credit opportunities (including credit repair), or weight loss and other health products and services, we urge you to contact the Office of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Bureau, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603-271-3641) or the Better Business Bureau at 603-224-1991. Also, to ensure the safe operation of the oil burners, it is critical that used motor oil is uncontaminated from water or any other fluids or chemicals. The following tips provide a

Best Practices for handling used motor oil

- 1. Avoid contaminaother fluid to the container holding used motor oil.
- 2. For ease of inspection, store used oil in translucent containers. If using milk or water jugs, do not store for long periods; they are made of a thinner plastic than the original oil containers and are prone to leaking over time.

uncovered or outside, er, if done right away. exposed to rain and snow. Always keep a lid on the containers.

4. If rainwater has gotten into your oil, during winter when the temperature is below freezing put it outside with the lid on. The oil will remain on top and any water will freeze below the oil in the container. Once the water freezes, the container can be brought inside and the oil safely poured into

3. Do not store oil another plastic contain-
