Battalion Chief Roger Retires After 32-Years of Service

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The town of Londonderry bid farewell to a valuable part of the Londonderry Fire Department last week.

Battalion Chief,

James "Jim" Roger, officially retired last week, and leaves the department with over 30-years of experience in the municipal, and private sectors of life safety and emergency management.

Roger began his career as a firefighter here in Londonderry, back on Sept. 10, 1990, making his way through the ranks to his current position of Battalion Chief.

District May Transition South Programs to North

LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Oct. 18 School Board meeting, members were advised there may be a need to transition some of the programs conducted at South Elementary School to North School in the near future.

"The three programs were run at South School because space was available in the past," Interim Superintendent, Dan Black, wrote in a memo to the school board. "There is still physical space for these three programs at South School with current enrollment projections, but we have reached the conclusion that it is no longer sustainable for South School to house all three programs in one space due to a variety of factors."

Black said it is something that they have looked at for a while.

"We can't ask one building to take on more than other buildings," said Black.

As part of the proposal, current students in kindergarten to third-grade that are in the district wide behavioral/emotional program would shift from North Elementary School next year.

Most of the staff at South School that work in the district wide program would make the transition as well.

"A small contingent of staff would be utilized to work with the students in grade 4 and 5 (2023-24 school year grades) to complete their elementary education and then transition to Londonderry Middle School," said Black.

Black stated they believe they will be able to make the transition with the amount of staff they have.

"We believe we can do it based on the number of staff we have," continued on page 9

School Board Get Update on Superintendent Search

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

At a recent School Board meeting, on Oct. 18, the Board received an update regarding the district's search for its next permanent superintendent.

During their previous meeting, the School Board decided to begin their search for a permanent superintendent once again.

School Board Chair, Amy Finamore, said she had a discussion with Human Resources Director, Cindy McMahon, regarding the preliminary schedule for their superintendent search committee.

She added that the posting for the job will be closing on Nov. 8.

"We were thinking Thursday, Nov. 10 at 7 p.m. we would have our first meeting," said Finamore.

Finamore stated for the first meeting they were thinking it would be for about an hour and would mostly just be an overview of what the process would be.

The second meeting would be the following Friday on Nov. 18 at 4 p.m. in order to discuss the different applications they receive.

"That would be to go over the applications," said Finamore.

After that, Finamore said they would schedule the short and the long interviews with applicants they choose from.

During the Superintendent report Acting Superintendent, Dan Black, said they were told by Convenient MD they could provide covid testing for those who are interested.

"The state is still funding free covid tests for students and staff," said Black.

Black explained it would be totally optional and they wouldn't need to use any of their own staff.

"They're able to work with us with their staff year. We have no staff that would be committed towards it," said Black.

Black said they were told that if they had 25 to 40 people at any given school interested in participating in the program then they would come on site to do it.

"If there is not a lot of interest then they wouldn't have the program," said Black.

He told the School Board they would put out the information to staff and parents to see if there is any interest in the program.

In other liaison reports, School Board Vice Chair, Sara Loughlin, gave the school board an update regarding the communications committee, which met the previous day.

"A lot of information has been shared out over the past month, which includes information about Alice training, senior expo outreach, fliers in the parents site, and many more," said Loughlin.

Loughlin said another thing the committee has done was discussed Facebook rules for the school district's page. She added that they are also looking at next steps, which includes creating a building staff directory.

She said the committee decided to meet bi monthly and their next meeting would be in December.

The next School Board meeting is slated to take place on Nov. 22, which is when the School Board is expected to be presented with the proposed budget.

OBITUARY

Raymond A. Bedard

Raymond A. Bedard, age 94, a resident of the NH Veterans Home in Tilton, NH and former longtime resident of Dracut died Friday, Oct. 21, 2022, at the NH Veterans Home from complications of Covid 19.

He was the beloved husband of the late Theresa (Sancartier) Bedard who died in 1987. He was born in Lowell, MA on Aug. 22, 1928 and was the son of the late Arthur and Marie Laure (Nolet) Bedard. Ray attended St Joseph's of Lowell grammar and high schools and held the distinction of being double promoted twice during his early academic years. He was a brilliant man. Growing up in the Acre section of Lowell, Raymond enjoyed baseball and would often recall stories of his play in the "Twi League" which drew large crowds to Lowell's North and South Commons back in the 1940s. He continued to play in leagues in Dracut, MA with his wife and kids in tow. Ray proudly served his country in the United States Air Force during the Korean Conflict, where he progressed to the rank of Staff Sergeant before his honorable discharge. While enjoying a 25 plus year career as an engineer at Raytheon in Andover, MA, Raymond earned his BS in Computer Programming with emphasis on Artificial Intelligence from Fitchburg State University and graduated with Highest Honors. He was also a member of the Raytheon management club. Ray was ahead of his time, often commuting to Raytheon on his 10 speed English Racing bicycle. Post retirement, Ray became an accomplished author, having written and published several books, including The Gods of Venus X, Nobody Told Me! and Primer for Walking the Way. He was a devout Catholic and man of his faith. For many years, Ray was an active communicant of the former St. Louis de France Parish in Lowell. He was also supportive of the Christian Formation Center and led many "Walk in the Spirit Seminars" as well as the prayer group meetings there, over the years. Ray was well known for his efforts to help the less fortunate. He studied at a Monastery in New Mexico and provided Spiritual Direction from an office in his home. He later became a counselor serving those under hospice care. Ray enjoyed watching the Boston Red Sox and tennis and was a member of Toastmasters for many years. In his younger years, he loved dancing with his wife, Terry, vacationing with the family in Jerusalem, RI and playing canasta, tennis, softball, ping pong and shooting pool.

Ray is survived by three daughters, Cherylann Pierce and her husband Larry of New Durham, NH, Ramona Bedard of Pelham, NH and Theresa Campbell and her husband David of Littleton; two sons, Mark Bedard and his wife Tammie, and Matthew Bedard and his wife Jennifer, all of Dracut; 10 grandchildren, Rebecca Roderick and her husband Matthew, Nicholas Gamache, Nathan Campbell, Beth Campbell, Jordan Bedard, Jeffrey Bedard, Bryan Bedard, Hilary Field, Joshua Bedard and Dana Pierce; four great grandchildren, Nicholas Gamache, Aubrie Roderick, Juliana Roderick and Noelle Louise Marquis; his sister-in-law, Mary Jane Bedard, many beloved nieces and nephews and his friends from "The Group". He was also the brother of the late Oliver Bedard, Henry Bedard, Alfred Bedard, Raymond Bedard, (yes same name) Rose Corradino, Yvonne Huestis, Alice Burns, Cecile Vincent, Rita Geoffroy and Rolande Gilman.

His family would also like to recognize and thank the staff of the NH Veterans Home and The Arbors Assisted Living Center in Dracut for the care and compassion that they showed him during his stays with them.

A Celebration of Life was held at the Mckenna-Ouellette Funeral Home. His Funeral Mass was celebrated St. Marguerite D'Youville Parish (formerly St. Theresa's Shrine) in Dracut. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Raymond's memory to: The NH Veterans Home Residential Benefit Fund, 139 Winter St, Tilton, NH 03276-5415.

Candidate for State Representative

Due to a communication error, the Londonderry Times did not run one of the submissions sent for Democrat candidates for State Representative.

The following response is from one of the missing candidates in last week's article on the Nov. 8 election.

Tammy Siekmann

To me representing Londonderry means representing all of Londonderry, from the children to our young professionals to our families and seniors. I am committed to working across the aisle to get things done in the best interest of Londonderry with the transparency that elected officials and our government owe to our constituents. I will work for commonsense legislation that ensures

- All students receive the best education possible

- Medical decisions remain between doctors and patients and without the interference of the government

- We improve NH's economy and protect its residents from the rising costs of day-to-day necessities like electricity, heat, and groceries.

- Every tax dollar spent is impactful and every transaction is transparent and available for constituents to easily review and understand.

- We continue to protect and conserve our beautiful land and environment.

- We continue to support our service men and women and our veterans in the way that they deserve for the sacrifices they've made for our country.

At the end of the day, the extreme views of other candidates may make great headlines, but they make for bad legislation that is harmful to your families, your businesses, your bank accounts, and our state. We need collaborative commonsense representatives who will work together to move our state forward toward greater prosperity and even greater community. I am one of those candidates, and I would appreciate your vote on Nov. 8.

Marie Françoise Evers

Marie Françoise Evers, 78, of Londonderry, NH, passed away Wednesday, Oct. 26, 2022, at the Catholic Medical Center, Manchester, NH. She was born on April 10, 1944 in Black Lake, QC, Canada, the youngest of 13 children of Simeon and Generia (Corriveau) Evers. Marie was happily enjoying her retirement playing bingo and cards with her various groups of friends at the Senior Center. She was a devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Family was the most important thing to Marie.

She is survived by her daughter, Nancy Kopoulos and her husband Aris of Londonderry, one grandson, John Doucette III of Londonderry, two step granddaughters, Rhea Wyatt and her husband Nick of Merrimack and Christine Kopoulos of Kingston; two step great grandchildren, Benjamin and Avery and cherished friends, Carol and John Doucette. She was also survived by four sisters and many nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews. She was predeceased by four sisters and four brothers.

There are no calling hours. Following cremation, per Marie's wishes, she will be laid to rest in Canada with her family.

Veterans Day

Starting in 1919, Americans have been celebrating Veterans Day on Nov. 11. This holiday was originally proclaimed by Woodrow Wilson as "Armistice Day", during a time when the world had seen what they thought was the first and last major global conflict, what is now known as World War I. It is referred to as, "the resumption by the people of the US of peaceful relations with other nations, which we hope may never again be severed...". In 1938, Nov. 11 became a federal holiday, "dedicated to the cause of world peace." Then, in 1954, the name was changed to Veterans Day to honor the service of veterans in all wars.

The US Department of Veterans Affairs emphasizes that Veterans Day is largely intended to thank veterans for their service. To acknowledge their contributions to national security, and to underscore that all those who have served, living and dead, have sacrificed and done their duty to their country.

Veterans of all branches in the armed services generally enjoy a sense of camaraderie.

On this day we pay respect to our veterans. We are use to the day off that is received on this day, but it tends to detract from the meaning of the day. Memorial Day is characterized by the launch of summer, barbecues, and trips to the beach, rather than a time of reflection on those who served and lost their lives in the service of our country. This day is not meant to be a time of celebration, but instead should be a break in the routine, a time to reflect on our freedoms and on the sacrifices of those who have fought to defend what we hold dear and what we all too often take for granted.

The cost of freedom since has been American lives and heartaches. It's something many of us take for granted when going about our daily lives. We get two days a year, Memorial Day and Veterans Day, two days is not enough to recognize the sacrifice our military endure to protect our freedom we take for granted like free speech, voting, and the right to bear arms. This is something that should live in the back of our minds every day. Nonetheless, this Veterans Day we should all take the time to sincerely appreciate our veterans.

To those who are currently deployed, our thoughts are with you and your families and we hope you will return home safely.

A powerful statement about our armed services members states, "All gave some. Some gave all." Those fallen members gave their lives so that we can continue to live in a democratic society. No one knows or understands this sacrifice in the same way that a Gold Star Family does. Some have been deeply affected by their service wounded physically and emotionally, while others emerge relatively unscarred. They do their duty with honor, dignity, and loyalty they all served our country for all of us.

They all deserve a thank you on Veterans Day, and every day.

Concern for the Vaccine

To the editor,
"CDC COVID vaccine recommendations for children misguided"

As a doctor, I was extremely disappointed to hear that my colleagues at the CDC are recommending the COVID vaccine as a new part of childhood vaccinations. I am writing to the Londonderry community because I fear that school districts, such as Londonderry's, will take these recommendations and mandate them for our schoolchildren.

These recommendations should not be interpreted by school districts as a reason to mandate our children to get the COVID vaccine for many reasons. First of all, childhood vaccinations have historically targeted childhood disease with the goal of protecting children from diseases that are both prevalent and dangerous to children, such as polio, measles, mumps, rubella. COVID is not and never was dangerous to the average child. Secondly, these other childhood vaccines are well known to prevent infection and prevent transmission. The COVID vaccine does neither, so it should not even be called a vaccine.

While a healthy child's risk of severe disease or death from getting sick with COVID is extremely rare, or perhaps even non-existent, children receiving the COVID vaccine have had significant side effects (specifically myocarditis - inflammation of the heart muscle). Unfortunately, it is still not clear what the true incidence of this side effect is. Nor do we know if there are other long term side effects to the COVID vaccine in children, possibly as they pass through puberty into adulthood, because there has not been enough time to follow children who have received the vaccine. Thus, this is essentially still an experimental medication and mandating that on children would be in direct violation of the Nuremberg Code of Permissible Medical Experiments.

Wisely, the CDCs counterparts in other countries have decided that the risk/benefit analysis does NOT support recommending the vaccine at all in children. When I became a doctor, we gave the Hippocratic Oath that stated we would "First Do No Harm". I encourage the Londonderry School District and all school districts in the US to heed Hippocrates and not turn the CDCs recommendations into a mandate for our school children. Please, first do no harm.

Riki Kveraga, MD

Deeply Concerning

To the editor,
I don't think I have ever had such a visceral reaction to something I have seen in our local paper as what I read in the Around Town section regarding a respect life essay contest.

Catholics have way too much history with sexualizing children to have any right to have a say in anyone's reproductive decisions, never mind a bunch of grown men asking children to write essays about it. The fact of the matter is that it is not any of your business. If you don't want an abortion, don't get one; End of story.

Don't be gross,
Tom Burton

Our Neighborhood

To the editor,
We would like to describe the character of the Londonderry neighborhood we live in and the wonderful neighbors we have.

Recently one of us had cataract surgery, followed by chest pain, resulting in hospitalization and an emergent cardiac catheterization. Immediately following hospital discharge that person developed a horrendous cough.

After being seen by a physician, who diagnosed Covid 19 Positive test results and described it as a "not mild case, we are now in quarantine. The leaves continue to fall and obliterate our acre of lawn.

Three of our neighbors and one of their daughters, long term residents on our street, came this morning and cleared our property of fallen leaves. They then proceeded up the same street to do the same for another incapacitated neighbor. Acts like this are not uncommon for this neighborhood. We felt we needed others to know how grateful we are for the help and the friendship. They are truly the best of the best and one of the reasons we continue to reside here.

Local Democrats Host Talk with Pappas

U.S. Congressman Chris Pappas met with a small gathering at Coffeeberries in Londonderry on Monday and had some very informal discussions with local voters.

Pappas was also presented with a gift by Jackie Wood, the Chair of the Auburn Democratic Committee and Tammy Seikmann, the chair of the Londonderry Democratic Committee (photo below).

In a recent press release Pappas highlighted his work to protect access to abortion and contraception and defend all rights rooted in privacy.

"Private medical decisions, like how and when to start a family, should always be between a woman and her doctor," said Pappas. "What happens in a doctor's office is none of the government's business. But my opponent thinks otherwise. I will always fight to protect reproductive freedom and the right of women - not the government - to make their own decisions."

Londonderry School Board Gets Presentation On Right To Know Law

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Oct. 18 School Board meeting William Phillips, a staff attorney for the NH School Board Association gave a presentation to the Board regarding Right to Know laws in NH particularly when it comes to their meetings.

"The right to know law has different versions of definitions," said Phillips.

Phillips explained that the rules don't just apply to school boards or school districts.

"It also applies to advisory committees, sub committees or any committees of the school board," said Phillips.

Phillips said that when it comes to internal committees that are just for the Administration there are different rules than if a committee is created to function as a way to report to the school board.

"Board committees and statutory committees are always 'public bodies', while committees carrying out administrative functions are generally not," said Phillips.

When it comes to meetings there are a number of requirements including providing a posted public notice of the meeting. He said that there is no requirement for most meetings that an agenda is posted. Another requirement is to require the public to attend.

Some of the other requirements that Phillips pointed to include conducting all votes openly, making appropriate minutes of the meeting, and allowing non-disruptive video/audio recordings.

Phillips also pointed to a change that has been made in the State that requires 30 minutes of public comment for School Board meetings. He noted that it doesn't apply for committees.

"That's a new requirement as of this year," said Phillips.

Phillips said that the only exceptions are if the purpose of the meeting is just to go into non public or if it's an emergency meeting.

When it comes to communicating outside of meetings Phillips pointed out that there isn't a difference between doing so in person or through electronic means.

"Rules apply equally to in-person or telephonic exchanges apply equally to any form of communication that allows for contemporaneous two-way communications," said Phillips.

Phillips said that some of the common problem areas that they see include Facebook pages and comments and emails.

In certain circumstances Phillips explained that public bodies are allowed to have non public meetings.

Some of the statutory grounds for allowing for non-meetings or non-public sessions include individual privacy, the District's legal or competitive interests, or safety and security concerns.

Some of the things that public bodies are allowed to consider or act on during non-public meetings includes the hiring of any person as a public employee, considering the acquisition, sale or lease of "real or personal property which, if discussed in public, would likely benefit a party or parties whose interests are adverse to those of the general community," as well as things like discipline matters.

Phillips said that there are "no requirements as to when a non-public session may occur, other than the requirement that the non-public session must occur during a public meeting."

It was explained by Phillips that there are only a few different people who are allowed to be in non-public sessions. It includes the public body's membership, the superintendent, unless subject matter concerns him/her, and essential staff and or guests when warranted. Phillips said that "while board members have taken an oath, and employees are subject to confidentiality provisions, other attendees do not have the same obligations to maintain confidentiality."

"Although most boards use either one of the members or even the Superintendent to take minutes, a board could use its typical minute taker, provided there was a high level of confidence in that person's ability to keep matters confidential," Phillips added.

The next School Board meeting is slated to take place on Nov. 22 at 7 p.m.

Veterans Day Breakfast Back at High School on Nov. 12

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Londonderry High School present their "Thank You Veterans Breakfast A Patriotic Salute To Our American Heroes" once again after a two-year break due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

On Saturday, Nov. 12, the Londonderry Town Council and School Board have combined effort to sponsor what was the annual breakfast that took place each year, just before the Veterans Day Parade.

The event will take place from 8:30 - 10:30 a.m. in the LHS Cafeteria and is hosted by LHS Assistant Principal Katie Sullivan and the LHS Pay It Forward Club.

As always, the cost for Veterans to take part in the breakfast is free and donations will be accepted for guests to join in.

This year's event is limited to just Londonderry residents who served the country and are now veterans.

Over the years, this has been a very popular event and has always ended with veterans receiving gift baskets from local businesses.

For more info contact on the breakfast contact Katie Sullivan, Assistant Principal (House Four), by phone at: (603) 432-6941 x2527.

ber of kids and staff we have," said Black.

He said he thinks it will be equitable for everyone in the district.

"We think it's the right plan for all our kids," said Black.

One of the concerns Black pointed to however is the amount of space at North School and there is the potential they may need to use a couple of portables.

"At some point, either in this budget cycle, or a future budget cycle, we do see the potential to add temporary classroom space at North School to be able to run this district-wide program and keep up with the enrollment trends and current programming that occurs at North School right now," Black told the School Board.

School Board member, Bob Slater, said he wanted them to look at other ways to make it work without having to go with portables.

"I'd like to look at every possible way rather than portables," said Slater.

Black explained if there are any budget impacts they will bring it back to the School Board. It would likely be the case if they decide if they need portables or not.

"This switching of a program location is an administrative change, but we are just being public and transparent about the change with the school board, so you all have time to ask questions and make sure you are also comfortable with the change before we proceed any further," Black said in a memo.

Don Bolduc Holds Meet & Greet at Local Restaurant

United States Senatorial candidate Republican, Don Bolduc, held a Town Hall type event at Game Changer Sports Bar & Grill in Londonderry on Wednesday night, Oct. 26, and filled the room with supporters. The local event was organized by a local "Parents for Bolduc" group. Bolduc spent time making his way through the restaurant shaking hands with those attending before speaking to the crowd. Much of his speech involved parents' rights when it comes to dealing with school districts. Bolduc is looking to unseat incumbent Democrat Maggie Hassin. Bolduc is a former Brigadier General of the U.S. Army and it's his third attempt as a U.S. Senator.

Lady Lancer Volleyball Squad Make it To Semi-Finals

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Girls' Volleyball team had two victories to start their quest for a division title last week, winning their first round match in straight sets, but then having to come from behind in the quarterfinals match.

The Lancer squad finished the season with an exceptional 16-2, finishing in third place behind the Bedford Bulldogs at 18-0 and Hollis Brookline, who also finished at 16-2, but beat Londonderry in the final week of the season.

The team's stellar record put the girls in the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association's Division I playoffs as the number three seed facing the Nashua South Purple Panthers in the Preliminary Round at home on Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The LHS squad had very little trouble getting by the #14 seed to move on to the quarterfinals. Londonderry had a 3-0 victory over Nashua South with 25-18, 25-17, and 25-11 games.

Junior Ally McGonagle had 12 kills and three aces in the match, while senior setter, Lexi Small, finished with 28 assists and two kills.

Freshman Riley Campo got six kills; senior Lacey Turner had five kills; and senior Madi Saucier had 4 kills.

Junior Abby Harrington finished with five digs and three aces, and senior Bella Elguezabal had six digs and three aces.

The Lancer teams second win of the tournament didn't come anywhere near as easily as the first.

Londonderry had to fight hard to come back from a two-game deficit against the Dover Green Wave, to take three of five games and move onto the semifinals. Dover was the #6 seed in the bracket and had just come off a 3-0 win over Pinkerton to start their tournament. The Green Wave had the home crowd silent as they began the match with a 25-8 win in the first game. Londonderry battled back in the second match with a 25-8 win in the first game. continued on page 15

LONDONDERRY TIMES

Although the Londonderry High School Cross-

Country teams didn't do as well as they would have liked in the NHIAA Division I Championship race, the Lancer Boys had two runners finish in the top three.

Senior runners, Ryan Fortin and Sean Clegg, took second and third place overall at the 5K Derryfield Cross-Country course with times of 16:05 and 16:12 respectively.

Their exceptional times will allow the LHS runners to continue their season at the Meet of Champions on Saturday, Nov. 6, at Alvirne High School in Hudson.

The MOCs takes the top 30 finishers at the Division I race and the top seven DI teams.

Bishop Guertin's Matthew Giardina was the first place finisher with a time of 16:00.

Other Lancer finishers for the boys were: freshman Josh Twomey at 18:12 (56); freshman Carson Fitzgerald at 18:19 (60); junior Aiden Oljey at 18:32 (73); freshman Jack DiBuono at 18:57 (86); and freshman Donovan Chylinski at 19:04 (89).

The Pinkerton Academy team won the Division I title with a score of 80. Windham High School was a distant second at 142 and Nashua South was third with a score 154. The Londonderry boys' team finished in eighth.

For the Lancer girls' team, senior Emily Smith was the highest finisher, with a time of 22:32 and a 48th spot. Sophomore Sade White had a time of 23:38; junior Amara Williams finished at 23:41; freshman Alera Tonniges (23:58); senior Katiana Chylinski (24:17); freshman Ella DiBuono (24:41); and junior Charley Fitzgerald (25:09).

The Pinkerton Academy girls' team also won the Division I State Championship. They had a score of 66-points, just below Bedford with 70-points and Winnacunnet took third with a score of 115.

Lancers Football Squad Head to Playoffs with Win Over Blue Devils

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Football team will be hosting a couple playoff games after completing their regular season with an overwhelming 41-6 win over the Blue Devils at Salem High School on Friday night. With that victory the Lancers were able to finish up another undefeated season in their division and will head into the NHIAA Division I Championship as the top seed.

In the Friday night road game in Salem, Londonderry scored three touchdowns in each of the first half quarters and allowed the Blues Devils in just once, at the end of the game.

The Lancers first score of the game came at 7:51 in the first, when senior quarterback, Drew Heenan, completed his pass to senior running back, Trevor Weinmann, for a 38-yard result. Senior kicker, Jack Drabik, had his only failed point-after attempt for the quick, six-point lead.

Two minutes later, at 5:37, Londonderry was in the end zone again, when junior running back, Jake Schena, dashed in for an 18-yard touchdown. Drabik's point-after was good for the 13-0 result.

The LHS squad added one more TD before the first quarter ended, at 1:40, Heenan had a completion to junior wide receiver, Matthew Carroll, for a 29-yard touchdown. Another point after attempt was made by Drabik and the Lancers enjoyed a 20-0 start.

Londonderry continued to dominate Salem on both sides of the ball in the second quarter, getting their third touchdown just 45 seconds in, as senior running back, Andrew Soucy, had an eight-yard run to pay dirt and a 27-0 lead for his team.

Nine minutes later, Soucy helped make it a 34-0 lead for LHS with a 10-yard touchdown run.

The final Lancer

points of the night came with just seven seconds left on the first-half clock. Senior Anthony Amaro managed a 17-yard run into the end zone and Drabik added the extra point for the 41-0 lead headed into halftime.

The Lancers were able to muster 349 total yards of offense in the game, despite having many of the starters come out after the half. Salem was held to just 123 yards of offense, many of those coming in the second half.

The Lancers were also able to average over eight yards per play in the victory and didn't commit a single turnover.

Heenan didn't need to go to the air much in the contest, getting five completions for 92-yards in just seven attempts.

They had 257 yards rushing on 33 runs by the offense.

Schena led with eight carries and 53-total-yards on the ground.

Ogden, carried the ball three times for 44-yards. Soucy had five carries and rushed for 33-yards and Weinmann had 26-yards with one run.

Weinmann led the team in receiving with his 38-yard reception for a TD.

Carroll, senior Andrew Kullman, junior Jaydon Navaro, and Schena also all had one reception in the game.

On defense, Drabik and Weinmann both had sacks in the game and senior line backer, Nathan Pedrick had two and a half tackles to lead the team in that category.

Senior Micheal Palma, Weinmann, senior Kyle McPhail, junior Camden Brutus, senior Donovan Gannon, and Carroll all had two solo tackles.

Londonderry's next game won't be until Saturday, Nov. 12 when they will host a quarter-final game against either Merrimack or Portsmouth/Oyster River at Lancer Park as they look to repeat as the state's Division I champions.

If the Londonderry team is able to capture another division title, it will be the team's third championship in four years.

Londonderry accomplished the same feat back in 1985, 86, and 88 when the school was a Division II team.

Volleyball

Continued from page 13 game and had as much as a five-point lead, but eventually lost 26-28.

In the third set, on the brink of elimination, the Lancers dug deep for the turnaround and kept Dover on their heels for a 25-14 victory. They led by as many as 13-points in that pivotal set.

The Lancers moved on with 25-19 and 15-11 victories for the nail-biting quarterfinal win.

Highlights for the Lancers included: McGonagle with 22 kills, seven aces and 11 digs; Small had 35 assists, three kills, three digs, and two aces; Elgueza-bal got 11 digs, four assists, and two aces; Turner had 10 kills; and Saucier finished with four kills, three aces, and two blocks.

With the win, the Lancers need to get by Hollis-Brookline (#2 seed) in the Semi-Finals on Tuesday, Nov. 1, to get to the championship game.

Hollis-Brookline beat LHS 3-1 in the final week of the regular season, handing them just their second loss.

Lancers Boys' Soccer Battle Nashua North in DI Tourney

A goal by senior Brady Joncas in the final minutes of regulation sent the Lancers playoff game into overtime. Photo by Chris Paul

LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Boys' Soccer team very nearly caused a significant upset in the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association's Division I playoffs last week, but wound up one goal shy of moving on from the first round.

The Lancers 5-9-2 regular season record put them in the state championship as the number 14 seed and they needed to beat the number three-seeded Nashua North High School Titan's to advance them in the playoffs.

The Londonderry squad's defense was able to keep the Titans limited to one goal in the first half of their first round game in Nashua and headed into the second half trailing by one.

Nashua North took a two-goal lead at the five-minute mark of the second half, after a penalty kick by the Titans.

In the 55th minute of the game, senior forward, Cristian Levantovski-Correa, scored his 14th goal of the year to bring the Lancers to with a goal of tying.

Senior Brady Joncas was able to knot the game at two in the 70th minute with an assist from junior Jackson

Lewis to send the game into an overtime period.

After a scoreless overtime, the game went into penalty kicks, where North won 4-3.

Both teams were successful in their first three kicks, and both had shots blocked in the fourth kick.

The fifth penalty kick wound up being the deciding goal, with North having success and Londonderry missing.

Lancers head coach, Todd Ellis, was pleased with the team, despite the difficult loss.

He said after the game, "The players played really hard today, and although the outcome was not what we wanted we fought until the end. As the 14th seed we took the third seed to PKs, and almost had them. It was great to see the players not fold after a difficult PK call and fight their way to a tie. It is never fun to lose your last game, but I am proud of how the team competed today."

Londonderry Dancers Earn Roles in NEDE's The Nutcracker

Talented dancers from more than nine Southern New Hampshire and Massachusetts towns auditioned for roles in the New England Dance Ensemble's performing company in mid-September. 81 dancers, ages 5-18, earned membership in the highly regarded nonprofit arts organization, including 23 Londonderry residents.

In this professional holiday production, aspiring dancers will be joined by guest artists from Philadelphia Ballet and Nashville Ballet. Sterling Baca - Principal Dancer with Philadelphia Ballet - will dance the role of Cavalier. Scarlett Güemez- company member with Philadelphia Ballet - will dance the role of Sugar Plum. Garritt McCabe - company member with Nashville Ballet - will be dance the role of Snow King and Arabian Prince. Accompaniment will be provided by The New Hampshire Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Mark Latham.

Known for its professional caliber, NEDE programs offer growth opportunities for the region's most dedicated performing arts students. Those attaining membership partake in rigorous dance training and are exposed to a wide range of performance types including classical and contemporary music and staging and theatrical workshops. In addition, NEDE members benefit from the opportunity to collaborate with high-profile dancers.

Company members have each been cast in NEDE's two upcoming professional performances of 'The Nutcracker', scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 26 and Sunday Nov. 27 at 4 p.m. at the Seifert Performing Arts Center, Salem, NH.

Rehearsals are currently underway at NEDE's home studio, Londonderry Dance Academy.

that the Town Council is considering three options to render it safe and useable.

The building is one of the oldest in Town and it is historically extremely significant. It was Londonderry's third Meeting House and was used by Rev. William Morrison throughout his ministry. It was built circa 1770 and moved to its present location circa 1837, shortly after the new Presbyterian Church was built.

Option 3 would totally destroy it and replace it with a modern structure. The report stated that that option 3 was only included for completeness, so hopefully Council will rapidly eliminate that from consideration. However, even option 1, that would replace the exterior siding and interior walls with modern materials and also make major interior alterations, would also destroy the historic nature of the building. The second option, that calls for repair and renovation of the exterior and interior sufficient to render the building safe and useable, is the only one that would preserve the historic significance. Even then, care will be needed to ensure the repairs are consistent with the period so we do not get a 'Norman Rockwell' bit of history where it looks original but the original materials have been replaced by modern vinyl or similar. I am unsure if it lies within the Town Common Historic District, but it is obviously adjacent to it so any exterior changes would impact that area from a heritage perspective.

In 1770 a one acre parcel of land on the hill beside the intersection of Hardy and Pillsbury Roads was donated to the West Parish for this Meeting

House. It was used from then until 1837 when the new Meeting House was constructed. After the Meeting House was moved to its present location it was used at times as a Town Hall, a school and a library. (On a flat quarter acre section of land beside the Pillsbury Rd., stop sign, the first wooden school house in that

A Historic Presidential Visit to Londonderry

SUBMITTED BY
DAVID ELLIS

Londonderry came within days of having a Presidential overnight guest. It was June of 1833 and President Andrew Jackson was visiting New England. He had been invited to visit our State. On Friday, June 21st, a letter was delivered to a Committee of the New Hampshire Legislature that had been appointed to wait on the President's response. That letter indicated that "It was his intention to leave Boston Tuesday morning, pass through Salem and Newburyport and lodge at Haverhill; from thence pass through Lowell and lodge at Nashua Wednesday night, and arrive in the vicinity of Concord at 2 o'clock, on Thursday afternoon." The detailed local arrangements would get refined by those with connections and influence.

In those days the major trade and stage coach route ran from the river crossing at Thornton's Ferry in Merrimack to Portsmouth via Wiley Hill and Pillsbury Roads. Although Mammoth Road in Londonderry had been completed two years earlier, it was still incomplete farther north. High

Range Road remained the primary north-south route. The President had an ardent supporter in Londonderry. Ebenezer Whittier ran the "Bell Tavern" at #84 High Range Road, one of the several businesses in the busy village at the intersection of these two major routes. He was presumably well connected in the Jacksonian party because the local arrangements seem to have been adjusted so that, instead of remaining in Nashua, the President's overnight stay would be at the Bell Tavern. Then, in the morning, the President would travel via

High Range Road, through Goff's Falls, to the newly incorporated mill at Amoskeag. Londonderry was about to get its first Presidential overnight visit.

To quote Robert Burns, "The best laid schemes o' mice an' men gang aft agley". Illness struck the President on Sunday and his doctor confined him to his quarters on Monday and Tuesday. Unusually wet weather also conspired against his trip. He was two days behind schedule and changes had to be made. On his first day back he visited Harvard and Bunker Hill, then continued to

Salem, Massachusetts, where he stayed at "West's House". On Thursday he visited Lowell for a major procession by the women and girls from the four mills. He stayed at the "Merrimack Hotel". An early start on Friday allowed him to receive a welcoming celebration at Nashua by the women and girls from Nashua's two mills and then take breakfast at the "Washington House", departing soon after. The President proceeded from Nashua to Bow, following the stage coach route on the west side of the river, where he was greeted at about 2:00 pm. Londonderry had been cut! He may have stopped at the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, located on the west side of the river near Notre Dame Bridge, but it would have been very brief because of his schedule.

Despite the disappointment Ebenezer Whittier still renamed his tavern as "Jackson Hall" and even named his first son "Jackson VanBuren Whittier". The property record card suggests that Jackson Hall does not remain today, having been replaced by the present home at that address.

district was built. The brick house to the north was a later replacement.)

This Years Polls

To the editor,
Perhaps the most important issue on the ballot in the coming election is human decency. I am saddened to listen to all the venom being thrown around in politics these days. Yes, politics necessarily includes arguments but these should be about policy, not personal attacks. Yes, we do have problems but there is a lot to be thankful for.

Let us thank the poll

workers, they are doing heroic duty. Thanks to the politicians who discuss the issues and can keep it civil. Thanks to the news reporters who do their job with integrity. Most of all, thank God that we live in a democracy, let us work to keep it.

When you are feeling down about the ugliness that seems everywhere these days do this: compliment our spouse, scratch our dog, say a friendly hi to our neighbor (even if he is voting for the other guy) it will make your day better. Go about your day with a smile. We are all in this together and you can do your part.

Ballot Facts, Just the Facts

To the editor,
There are two Constitutional Amendment Questions on all NH Ballots this November. As promised during my campaign for the Primary, I have researched the background and facts surrounding these two Amendments. My intention is to offer a summary of the facts.

Amendment 1: Deals with the elimination of the Register of Probate from the Counties In NH. In 2011, HB609 stated, "Establishing the NH circuit court to replace the current probate courts, district courts, and judicial branch family division, and was passed. This moved Probate issues to the Circuit Courts at the State level and technically removed the powers of the Registers of Probate at the County level. The position which pays $100 cannot be eliminated completely without this change in the Constitution and needs a 2/3 majority for passage. The second part of this Article would eliminate the wording, "or Register", as that position would no longer exist if passed.

Amendment 2: This is to form a Constitutional Convention to amend or revise the N.H. Constitution. This could also allow an amendment or revision of our Bill of Rights as they are stated in the "Part First- Bill of Rights" articles. A Constitutional Convention

GREENWorks: Do You Know Where Your Septic Tank Is?

Submitted by the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Service.

New to having a private septic tank? Wondering how your septic tank works or even where it is? It's common for New Hampshire homeowners to be unaware of their septic tank's location or how care for it properly. Neglecting your septic tank can lead to costly and burdensome repairs, so it's important to know where it is, how it works and how you can better care for it.

Where's My Septic Tank?

To start out, there are some places that your septic tank should not be placed, like next to your well, below or touching your home, under a patio or deck or under a paved surface. A septic tank's location can impact nearby water sources, as well. A permitted septic system designer will design a system and maintain setbacks to water sources to the greatest extent practical (depending on site conditions), and a permitted septic system installer will install it in accordance with the approved plan. An approval for operation will be issued after inspection. Cities and towns receive copies of septic system plans from NHDES, so your plans should be available at your local city or town office, typically within the Building Division. You can ask for any septic plans and/or approval numbers that they have on file for your property. You can also search for any information on the property through the NHDES OneStop database at www4.des.state.nh.us/SBOneStop/. If you can't find your septic system plans through these avenues, you can make an archive record request through NHDES onlineforms.nh.gov/ for mtag=nhdes-w-05-010.

Once you have the plan, you can review the septic system diagram to determine the size of your tank and the number of lids it has to help narrow down its location. However, there are cases where records cannot be found. If your home was built before 1967, when the Subsurface Systems law was enacted, these records would not exist. Also, sometimes the systems have been installed without a permit.

If the plans for your septic system are not available, there are still ways to help you identify the location of your septic tank.

First, you should inspect your yard for any extra green grass or flat spots that look out of place compared to the rest of your property. Often, the land above your tank will be leveled out, and sometimes, drain fields and overflowed septic tanks can provide fertilizer to your lawn, making it healthier and greener. If all else fails, you can locate where your sewer line leaves your house (usually in a basement). Follow the sewer line's path by inserting a soil probe, which can be found at your local hardware store, into your soil every two feet or so; eventually you should find where your sewer line meets up with your septic tank. If this process is difficult, or if you'd like some assistance, you can also contact a septic system service provider to help you locate your septic tank.

So How Does Your Septic System Work?

Every time that water goes down your drain it ends up going through your sewer line and into your septic tank. The tank itself is a buried, water-tight container. The septic tank's main job is to hold all of the wastewater and allow the solid waste to sink to the bottom; the fats, oils and greases float to the top. The water is then allowed to exit the septic tank and travel through a pipe to the drain field, where the pretreated wastewater is discharged through the soil. The soil then treats and disperses the wastewater, which has now been freed of coliform bacteria and viruses.

When necessary, about every three to five years, you should have your septic tank pumped out get-pumpednh.com/ so that all the grease, scum and sludge stored in the tank can be brought to a wastewater treatment plant.

Caring for your Septic System

Here are some more helpful tips that will help to keep your septic system efficient and effective and may even prolong the life of your septic tank!

- Only flush the Three P's: pee, poop and toilet paper.
- Consider using plant-based detergents and cleaners.

• Don't put bleach and other harmful chemicals down the drain.

• Have your septic tank regularly inspected.

• Pump your septic tank as needed, normally every three to five years.

• Don't put solids, grease, or food waste down your sink.

• Keep the area above your septic tank clear of trash, debris, vehicles, or trees.

• Read our fact sheet "You and Your Septic System" at: www.des.nh.gov/sites/g/files/ehbemt341/files/documents/2020-01/ssb-13.pdf for more information!

A septic tank needs to be cared for and serviced. Neglecting your septic system and not treating your septic tank properly can lead to costly and burdensome repairs. So, it's important to know where your septic tank is, how it works and how you can better care for it.

Continued from page 18 was last held in 1984. If passed, by majority, it would require an election at either the regular election or a special election of Delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

In addition, the State passed HB 1397 and it was signed into law by Gov. Sununu on 7/1/22.

This bill establishes a 4-year term for the county treasurer, county sheriff, county register of deeds, and county attorney in Rockingham County.

Prior to this Bill our above-named officials were elected for 2 years. These positions in all other 9 Counties in N.H. remain at 2 years.

Finally:
 RSA Chapter 657:

ABSENTEE VOTING Eligibility

657:1 Absence, Religious Observance, and Disability Absentee Voting.

"I. Any person who will be absent on the day of any state election from the city, town, or unincorporated place in which he or she is registered to vote or who cannot appear in public on any election day because of his or her observance of a religious commitment or who is unable to vote there in person by reason of physical disability may vote at such elec-

Lady Lancer Volleyball Squad Make it To Semi-Finals

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Girls' Volleyball team had two victories to start their quest for a division title last week, winning their first round match in straight sets, but then having to come from behind in the quarterfinals match.

The Lancer squad finished the season with an exceptional 16-2, finishing in third place behind the Bedford Bulldogs at 18-0 and Hollis Brookline, who also finished at 16-2, but beat Londonderry in the final week of the season.

The team's stellar record put the girls in the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association's Division I playoffs as the number three seed facing the Nashua South Purple Panthers in the Preliminary Round at home on Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The LHS squad had very little trouble getting by the #14 seed to move on to the quarterfinals. Londonderry had a 3-0 victory over Nashua South with 25-18, 25-17, and 25-11 games.

Junior Ally McGonagle had 12 kills and three aces in the match, while senior setter, Lexi Small, finished with 28 assists and two kills.

Freshman Riley Campo got six kills; senior Lacey Turner had five kills; and senior Madi Saucier had 4 kills.

Junior Abby Harrington finished with five digs and three aces, and senior Bella Elguezabal had six digs and three aces.

The Lancer teams second win of the tournament didn't come anywhere near as easily as the first.

Londonderry had to fight hard to come back from a two-game deficit against the Dover Green Wave, to take three of five games and move onto the semifinals. Dover was the #6 seed in the bracket and had just come off a 3-0 win over Pinkerton to start their tournament. The Green Wave had the home crowd silent as they began the match with a 25-8 win in the first game. Londonderry battled back in the second match with a 25-8 win in the first game. continued on page 15

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Although the Londonderry High School Cross-

Country teams didn't do as well as they would have liked in the NHIAA Division I Championship race, the Lancer Boys had two runners finish in the top three.

Senior runners, Ryan Fortin and Sean Clegg, took second and third place overall at the 5K Derryfield Cross-Country course with times of 16:05 and 16:12 respectively.

Their exceptional times will allow the LHS runners to continue their season at the Meet of Champions on Saturday, Nov. 6, at Alvirne High School in Hudson.

The MOCs takes the top 30 finishers at the Division I race and the top seven DI teams.

Bishop Guertin's Matthew Giardina was the first place finisher with a time of 16:00.

Other Lancer finishers for the boys were: freshman Josh Twomey at 18:12 (56); freshman Carson Fitzgerald at 18:19 (60); junior Aiden Oljey at 18:32 (73); freshman Jack DiBuono at 18:57 (86); and freshman Donovan Chylinski at 19:04 (89).

The Pinkerton Academy team won the Division I title with a score of 80. Windham High School was a distant second at 142 and Nashua South was third with a score 154. The Londonderry boys' team finished in eighth.

For the Lancer girls' team, senior Emily Smith was the highest finisher, with a time of 22:32 and a 48th spot. Sophomore Sade White had a time of 23:38; junior Amara Williams finished at 23:41; freshman Alera Tonniges (23:58); senior Katiana Chylinski (24:17); freshman Ella DiBuono (24:41); and junior Charley Fitzgerald (25:09).

The Pinkerton Academy girls' team also won the Division I State Championship. They had a score of 66-points, just below Bedford with 70-points and Winnacunnet took third with a score of 115.

Lancers Football Squad Head to Playoffs with Win Over Blue Devils

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Football team will be hosting a couple playoff games after completing their regular season with an overwhelming 41-6 win over the Blue Devils at Salem High School on Friday night. With that victory the Lancers were able to finish up another undefeated season in their division and will head into the NHIAA Division I Championship as the top seed.

In the Friday night road game in Salem, Londonderry scored three touchdowns in each of the first half quarters and allowed the Blues Devils in just once, at the end of the game.

The Lancers first score of the game came at 7:51 in the first, when senior quarterback, Drew Heenan, completed his pass to senior running back, Trevor Weinmann, for a 38-yard result. Senior kicker, Jack Drabik, had his only failed point-after attempt for the quick, six-point lead.

Two minutes later, at 5:37, Londonderry was in the end zone again, when junior running back, Jake Schena, dashed in for an 18-yard touchdown. Drabik's point-after was good for the 13-0 result.

The LHS squad added one more TD before the first quarter ended, at 1:40, Heenan had a completion to junior wide receiver, Matthew Carroll, for a 29-yard touchdown. Another point after attempt was made by Drabik and the Lancers enjoyed a 20-0 start.

Londonderry continued to dominate Salem on both sides of the ball in the second quarter, getting their third touchdown just 45 seconds in, as senior running back, Andrew Soucy, had an eight-yard run to pay dirt and a 27-0 lead for his team.

Nine minutes later, Soucy helped make it a 34-0 lead for LHS with a 10-yard touchdown run.

The final Lancer

points of the night came with just seven seconds left on the first-half clock. Senior Anthony Amaro managed a 17-yard run into the end zone and Drabik added the extra point for the 41-0 lead headed into halftime.

The Lancers were able to muster 349 total yards of offense in the game, despite having many of the starters come out after the half. Salem was held to just 123 yards of offense, many of those coming in the second half.

The Lancers were also able to average over eight yards per play in the victory and didn't commit a single turnover.

Heenan didn't need to go to the air much in the contest, getting five completions for 92-yards in just seven attempts.

They had 257 yards rushing on 33 runs by the offense.

Schena led with eight carries and 53-total-yards on the ground.

Ogden, carried the ball three times for 44-yards. Soucy had five carries and rushed for 33-yards and Weinmann had 26-yards with one run.

Weinmann led the team in receiving with his 38-yard reception for a TD.

Carroll, senior Andrew Kullman, junior Jaydon Navaro, and Schena also all had one reception in the game.

On defense, Drabik and Weinmann both had

sacks in the game and senior line backer, Nathan Pedrick had two and a half tackles to lead the team in that category.

Senior Micheal Palma, Weinmann, senior Kyle McPhail, junior Camden Brutus, senior Donovan Gannon, and Carroll all had two solo tackles.

Londonderry's next game won't be until Saturday, Nov. 12 when they will host a quarter-

final game against either Merrimack or Portsmouth/Oyster River at Lancer Park as they look to repeat as the state's Division I champions.

If the Londonderry team is able to capture another division title, it will be the team's third championship in four years.

Londonderry accomplished the same feat back in 1985, 86, and 88 when the school was a Division II team.

Volleyball

Continued from page 13 game and had as much as a five-point lead, but eventually lost 26-28.

In the third set, on the brink of elimination, the Lancers dug deep for the turnaround and kept Dover on their heels for a 25-14 victory. They led by as many as 13-points in that pivotal set.

The Lancers moved on with 25-19 and 15-11 victories for the nail-biting quarterfinal win.

Highlights for the Lancers included: McGonagle with 22 kills, seven aces and 11 digs; Small had 35 assists, three kills, thee digs, and two aces; Elgueza-bal got 11 digs, four assists, and two aces; Turner had 10 kills; and Saucier finished with four kills, three aces, and two blocks.

With the win, the Lancers need to get by Hollis-Brookline (#2 seed) in the Semi-Finals on Tuesday, Nov. 1, to get to the championship game.

Hollis-Brookline beat LHS 3-1 in the final week of the regular season, handing them just their second loss.

Lancers Boys' Soccer Battle Nashua North in DI Tourney

A goal by senior Brady Joncas in the final minutes of regulation sent the Lancers playoff game into overtime. Photo by Chris Paul

LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Boys' Soccer team very nearly caused a significant upset in the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association's Division I playoffs last week, but wound up one goal shy of moving on from the first round.

The Lancers 5-9-2 regular season record put them in the state championship as the number 14 seed and they needed to beat the number three-seeded Nashua North High School Titan's to advance them in the playoffs.

The Londonderry squad's defense was able to keep the Titans limited to one goal in the first half of their first round game in Nashua

and headed into the second half trailing by one.

Nashua North took a two-goal lead at the five-minute mark of the second half, after a penalty kick by the Titans.

In the 55th minute of the game, senior forward, Cristian Levantovski-Correa, scored his 14th goal of the year to bring the Lancers to with a goal of tying.

Senior Brady Joncas was able to knot the game at two in the 70th minute with an assist from junior Jackson

Lewis to send the game into an overtime period.

After a scoreless overtime, the game went into penalty kicks, where North won 4-3.

Both teams were successful in their first three kicks, and both had shots blocked in the fourth kick.

The fifth penalty kick wound up being the deciding goal, with North having success and Londonderry missing.

Lancers head coach, Todd Ellis, was pleased with the team, despite the difficult loss.

He said after the game, "The players played really hard today, and although the outcome was not what we wanted we fought until the end. As the 14th seed we took the third seed to PKs, and almost had them. It was great to see the players not fold after a difficult PK call and fight their way to a tie. It is never fun to lose your last game, but I am proud of how the team competed today."

Londonderry Dancers Earn Roles in NEDE's The Nutcracker

Talented dancers from more than nine Southern New Hampshire and Massachusetts towns auditioned for roles in the New England Dance Ensemble's performing company in mid-September. 81 dancers, ages 5-18, earned membership in the highly regarded nonprofit arts organization, including 23 Londonderry residents.

In this professional holiday production, aspiring dancers will be joined by guest artists from Philadelphia Ballet and Nashville Ballet. Sterling Baca - Principal Dancer with Philadelphia Ballet - will dance the role of Cavalier. Scarlett Güemez- company member with Philadelphia Ballet - will dance the role of Sugar Plum. Garritt McCabe - company member with Nashville Ballet - will be dance the role of Snow King and Arabian Prince. Accompaniment will be provided by The New Hampshire Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Mark Latham.

Known for its professional caliber, NEDE programs offer growth opportunities for the region's most dedicated performing arts students. Those attaining membership partake in rigorous dance training and are exposed to a wide range of performance types including classical and contemporary music and staging and theatrical workshops. In addition, NEDE members benefit from the opportunity to collaborate with high-profile dancers.

Company members have each been cast in NEDE's two upcoming professional performances of 'The Nutcracker', scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 26 and Sunday Nov. 27 at 4 p.m. at the Seifert Performing Arts Center, Salem, NH.

Rehearsals are currently underway at NEDE's home studio, Londonderry Dance Academy.

that the Town Council is considering three options to render it safe and useable.

The building is one of the oldest in Town and it is historically extremely significant. It was Londonderry's third Meeting House and was used by Rev. William Morrison throughout his ministry. It was built circa 1770 and moved to its present location circa 1837, shortly after the new Presbyterian Church was built.

Option 3 would totally destroy it and replace it with a modern structure. The report stated that that option 3 was only included for completeness, so hopefully Council will rapidly eliminate that from consideration. However, even option 1, that would replace the exterior siding and interior walls with modern materials and also make major interior alterations, would also destroy the historic nature of the building. The second option, that calls for repair and renovation of the exterior and interior sufficient to render the building safe and useable, is the only one that would preserve the historic significance. Even then, care will be needed to ensure the repairs are consistent with the period so we do not get a 'Norman Rockwell' bit of history where it looks original but the original materials have been replaced by modern vinyl or similar. I am unsure if it lies within the Town Common Historic District, but it is obviously adjacent to it so any exterior changes would impact that area from a heritage perspective.

In 1770 a one acre parcel of land on the hill beside the intersection of Hardy and Pillsbury Roads was donated to the West Parish for this Meeting

House. It was used from then until 1837 when the new Meeting House was constructed. After the Meeting House was moved to its present location it was used at times as a Town Hall, a school and a library. (On a flat quarter acre section of land beside the Pillsbury Rd., stop sign, the first wooden school house in that

SUBMITTED BY
DAVID ELLIS

Londonderry came within days of having a Presidential overnight guest. It was June of 1833 and President Andrew Jackson was visiting New England. He had been invited to visit our State. On Friday, June 21st, a letter was delivered to a Committee of the New Hampshire Legislature that had been appointed to wait on the President's response. That letter indicated that "It was his intention to leave Boston Tuesday morning, pass through Salem and Newburyport and lodge at Haverhill; from thence pass through Lowell and lodge at Nashua Wednesday night, and arrive in the vicinity of Concord at 2 o'clock, on Thursday afternoon." The detailed local arrangements would get refined by those with connections and influence.

In those days the major trade and stage coach route ran from the river crossing at Thornton's Ferry in Merrimack to Portsmouth via Wiley Hill and Pillsbury Roads. Although Mammoth Road in Londonderry had been completed two years earlier, it was still incomplete farther north. High

Range Road remained the primary north-south route. The President had an ardent supporter in Londonderry. Ebenezer Whittier ran the "Bell Tavern" at #84 High Range Road, one of the several businesses in the busy village at the intersection of these two major routes. He was presumably well connected in the Jacksonian party because the local arrangements seem to have been adjusted so that, instead of remaining in Nashua, the President's overnight stay would be at the Bell Tavern. Then, in the morning, the President would travel via

High Range Road, through Goff's Falls, to the newly incorporated mill at Amoskeag. Londonderry was about to get its first Presidential overnight visit.

To quote Robert Burns, "The best laid schemes o' mice an' men gang aft agley". Illness struck the President on Sunday and his doctor confined him to his quarters on Monday and Tuesday. Unusually wet weather also conspired against his trip. He was two days behind schedule and changes had to be made. On his first day back he visited Harvard and Bunker Hill, then continued to

Salem, Massachusetts, where he stayed at "West's House". On Thursday he visited Lowell for a major procession by the women and girls from the four mills. He stayed at the "Merrimack Hotel". An early start on Friday allowed him to receive a welcoming celebration at Nashua by the women and girls from Nashua's two mills and then take breakfast at the "Washington House", departing soon after. The President proceeded from Nashua to Bow, following the stage coach route on the west side of the river, where he was greeted at about 2:00 pm. Londonderry had been cut! He may have stopped at the Amoskeag Manufacturing Company, located on the west side of the river near Notre Dame Bridge, but it would have been very brief because of his schedule.

Despite the disappointment Ebenezer Whittier still renamed his tavern as "Jackson Hall" and even named his first son "Jackson VanBuren Whittier". The property record card suggests that Jackson Hall does not remain today, having been replaced by the present home at that address.

district was built. The brick house to the north was a later replacement.)

This Years Polls

To the editor,
Perhaps the most important issue on the ballot in the coming election is human decency. I am saddened to listen to all the venom being thrown around in politics these days. Yes, politics necessarily includes arguments but these should be about policy, not personal attacks. Yes, we do have problems but there is a lot to be thankful for.

Let us thank the poll

workers, they are doing heroic duty. Thanks to the politicians who discuss the issues and can keep it civil. Thanks to the news reporters who do their job with integrity. Most of all, thank God that we live in a democracy, let us work to keep it.

When you are feeling down about the ugliness that seems everywhere these days do this: compliment our spouse, scratch our dog, say a friendly hi to our neighbor (even if he is voting for the other guy) it will make your day better. Go about your day with a smile. We are all in this together and you can do your part.

Ballot Facts, Just the Facts

To the editor,

There are two Constitutional Amendment Questions on all NH Ballots this November. As promised during my campaign for the Primary, I have researched the background and facts surrounding these two Amendments. My intention is to offer a summary of the facts.

Amendment 1: Deals with the elimination of the Register of Probate from the Counties In NH. In 2011, HB609 stated, "Establishing the NH circuit court to replace the current probate courts, district courts, and judicial branch family division, and was passed. This moved Probate issues to the Circuit Courts at the State level and technically removed the powers of the Registers of Probate at the County level. The position which pays $100 cannot be eliminated completely without this change in the Constitution and needs a 2/3 majority for passage. The second part of this Article would eliminate the wording, "or Register", as that position would no longer exist if passed.

Amendment 2: This is to form a Constitutional Convention to amend or revise the N.H. Constitution. This could also allow an amendment or revision of our Bill of Rights as they are stated in the "Part First- Bill of Rights" articles. A Constitutional Convention

GREENWorks: Do You Know Where Your Septic Tank Is?

Submitted by the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Service.

New to having a private septic tank? Wondering how your septic tank works or even where it is? It's common for New Hampshire homeowners to be unaware of their septic tank's location or how care for it properly. Neglecting your septic tank can lead to costly and burdensome repairs, so it's important to know where it is, how it works and how you can better care for it.

Where's My Septic Tank?

To start out, there are some places that your septic tank should not be placed, like next to your well, below or touching your home, under a patio or deck or under a paved surface. A septic tank's location can impact nearby water sources, as well. A permitted septic system

designer will design a system and maintain setbacks to water sources to the greatest extent practical (depending on site conditions), and a permitted septic system installer will install it in accordance with the approved plan. An approval for operation will be issued after inspection. Cities and towns receive copies of septic system plans from NHDES, so your plans should be available at your local city or town office, typically within the Building Division. You can ask for any septic plans and/or approval numbers that they have on file for your property. You can also search for any information on the property through the NHDES OneStop database at www4.des.state.nh.us/SBOneStop/. If you can't find your septic system plans through these avenues, you can make an archive record request through NHDES onlineforms.nh.gov/ for

mtag=nhdes-w-05-010.

Once you have the plan, you can review the septic system diagram to determine the size of your tank and the number of lids it has to help narrow down its location. However, there are cases where records cannot be found. If your home was built before 1967, when the Subsurface Systems law was enacted, these records would not exist. Also, sometimes the systems have been installed without a permit.

If the plans for your septic system are not available, there are still ways to help you identify the location of your septic tank.

First, you should inspect your yard for any extra green grass or flat spots that look out of place compared to the rest of your property. Often, the land above your tank will be leveled out, and sometimes, drain fields and overflowed septic tanks can provide fertilizer to your lawn, making it healthier and greener. If all else fails, you can locate where your sewer line leaves your house (usually in a basement). Follow the sewer line's path by inserting a soil probe, which can be found at your local hardware store, into your soil every two feet or so; eventually you should find where your sewer line meets up with your septic tank. If this process is difficult, or if you'd like some assistance, you can also contact a septic system service provider to help you locate your septic tank.

So How Does Your Septic System Work?

Every time that water goes down your drain it ends up going through your sewer line and into your septic tank. The tank itself is a buried, water-tight container. The septic tank's main job is to hold all of the wastewater and allow the solid waste to sink to the bottom; the fats, oils and greases float to the top. The water is then allowed to exit the septic tank and travel through a pipe to the drain field, where the pretreated wastewater is discharged through the soil. The soil then treats and disperses the wastewater, which has now been freed of coliform bacteria and viruses.

When necessary, about every three to five years, you should have your septic tank pumped out get-pumpednh.com/ so that all the grease, scum and sludge stored in the tank can be brought to a wastewater treatment plant.

Caring for your Septic System

Here are some more helpful tips that will help to keep your septic system efficient and effective and may even prolong the life of your septic tank!

- Only flush the Three P's: pee, poop and toilet paper.
- Consider using plant-based detergents and cleaners.

• Don't put bleach and other harmful chemicals down the drain.

• Have your septic tank regularly inspected.

• Pump your septic tank as needed, normally every three to five years.

• Don't put solids, grease, or food waste down your sink.

• Keep the area above your septic tank clear of trash, debris, vehicles, or trees.

• Read our fact sheet "You and Your Septic System" at: www.des.nh.gov/sites/g/files/ehbemt341/files/documents/2020-01/ssb-13.pdf for more information!

A septic tank needs to be cared for and serviced. Neglecting your septic system and not treating your septic tank properly can lead to costly and burdensome repairs. So, it's important to know where your septic tank is, how it works and how you can better care for it.

was last held in 1984. If passed, by majority, it would require an election at either the regular election or a special election of Delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

In addition, the State passed HB 1397 and it was signed into law by Gov. Sununu on 7/1/22.

This bill establishes a 4-year term for the county treasurer, county sheriff, county register of deeds, and county attorney in Rockingham County.

Prior to this Bill our above-named officials were elected for 2 years. These positions in all other 9 Counties in N.H. remain at 2 years.

Finally:
RSA Chapter 657:

ABSENTEE VOTING Eligibility

657:1 Absence, Religious Observance, and Disability Absentee Voting.

"I. Any person who will be absent on the day of any state election from the city, town, or unincorporated place in which he or she is registered to vote or who cannot appear in public on any election day because of his or her observance of a religious commitment or who is unable to vote there in person by reason of physical disability may vote at such elec-

of raffles. Don't miss this opportunity for a night of laughs while supporting local charities and community outreach. For more information and how to purchase tickets, please email info@londonderry-womensclub.org.

Craft Fair & Cookie Walk

The Holiday Craft Fair and Cookie Walk will take place on Saturday, Nov. 5 from 9 a.m - 3 p.m., place at the Londonderry Senior Center at 535 Mammoth Rd., Londonderry. Local craftsmen and artisans will be displaying and selling their goods: jewelry, homemade woodcrafts, designer jams and pickles, photographs, artwork, crocheted and knitted items and more. Cookie Walk: A large variety of cookies will be ready for you to choose. Raffle Baskets are already on display at the Senior Center. Tickets, 6 for $5, are available from now through the Fair drawing to be held at the end of the Craft Fair. Santa Claus will be visiting during the Craft Fair. Good girls and boys can meet Santa and will receive a small gift. Kids can also make a Free Holiday Craft. Food and Beverages will be available for purchase from Londonderry Senior Citizens Inc (LSCI), a 501(c)3 organization. Fair proceeds go towards supporting the Center as well as other local organizations. For more information call Bonnie at 603-432-8554.

A History of Joni Mitchell

On Nov. 17 at 7 p.m., join us in the Leach Library meeting room for a musical performance and presentation on the life of Joni Mitchell. Presenters Chris Albertson and Cait Murphy will discuss Joni's personal and professional life, as well as her collaborations and influences on other artists. Registration is required and begins on Thursday, Nov. 10. To register, please visit the main desk or call the library.

Legion Football

Every Sunday during football season food is being served for only $10 at 3 p.m. at American Legion Post 27, 6 Sargent Rd., Londonderry. The menu will change weekly and will be posted on Facebook, at the Post and sent via email.
