Fond Farewell

Londonderry Police Chief Kim Bernard bids a fond farewell to longtime resident Reed Paige Clark III as he was given a special sendoff last week. Reed and his wife Phyllis are moving to Washing D.C. after his family has lived in town for over four generations. The couple were given a police escort as they left town.

Town Council Approve Cap For Insurance Rates Increase

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

During the Sept. 26 Town Council meeting, one of the agenda items was in regards to a proposal from Primax to cap the increases for property and liability insurance for the next three years at five percent per year.

The town's Finance Director, Justin Campo, explained that essentially no matter how many additional claims they have from year to year or how much more it costs, they would be capped at how much more they have to pay as a Town.

Kim Bernard Named as New Londonderry Chief of Police

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Deputy Police Chief, Kim Bernard, was officially named the Londonderry Chief of Police during the Town Council meeting on Monday night, Oct. 3.

Bernard assumed command of the Londonderry Police Department following Chief William Hart's retirement on Aug. 5, and has been with Londonderry for over 21 years.

Bernard has held numerous roles in the department throughout his tenure, they include: Patrolman; Field Training Officer; Patrol

Kim Bernard

Sergeant; Detective Sergeant; Support Services Lieutenant; Watch Commander; Operations Captain and Deputy Chief.

Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, proposed the appointment Monday night and said he felt Bernard was more than up for the challenge of his new role. Malaguti said, "Kim's greatest strength is his ability to deal with people. To a fault, he treats people decently and always strives to do the right thing."

He added that Bernard has navigated some difficult waters over the past few months and has done it with professionalism and dignity.

The Town Council voted unanimously to move forward with

Plans for New Water Tank Near Gordon Drive Reviewed

PAUL CONYERS
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Heritage and Historical District Commission met last month and discussed several new and ongoing construction applications.

One project, dating back to July, has been the design and review of a proposed 6,700-square-foot water tank with pipe improvements and a new station. The tank is located between Seven Rear Gordon Drive, and Marketplace Drive. Trevor Yandow of Manchester's Meridian Land Services and Mark Filion of Pennichuck Water Services were at the meeting to make a presentation.

"From a site layout standpoint: there's a tank, there's a gravel access drive that goes around the tank, and there's a stormwater basin to the west, on the left side of the tank," said Yandow, as he overviewed the proposal. "We are proposing some landscaping to the north of the tank to provide a year-round visual screen with some evergreen trees."

Yandow promised that the project would not impact any historical structures, with the sole exception of stone walls along Spring Road. He assured the Commission a disturbance to the stone wall would be "rebuilt in place."

"We're open to recommendations," added Filion, referring to the color and design of the water tank. Pennichuck Water promised to do its

Londonderry Teen Raises Funds for Suicide Prevention

It's been nearly a year now that Myleigh Brennan's best friend, Morgynne Seigny, took her own life, and over the past year Brennan, who is now a Londonderry High School junior, has been trying to raise funds and awareness for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Morgynne committed suicide on Oct. 19, 2021 and her unexpected death came without warning to her friends and family. It was said to be due mostly because of bullying through social media.

Myleigh Brennan was devastated by the sudden loss and in November of last year raised over $3,500 in her fund raising efforts to help prevent teen suicide.

When Morgynne passed, Brennan knew she wanted to do something special to honor her in the community and hoped her endeavor would have the ability to help other people who may be struggling with their own mental health or might be thinking of suicide.

Brennan established "Mariposas for Morgynne" last year and designed sweatshirts that were sold online displaying Morgynne's name and butterflies, symbolizing the effect of suicide on teens.

Brennan was surprised by the response to the fundraiser. "When I first thought of it, I figured I would sell a couple of hoodies to Morgynne's close friends, but it grew like crazy. I sold way more than I thought I ever could," she said.

This year, as the anniversary of her friends passing approaches, Brennan has designed a new hoodie, which has "STAY" on the front and the slogan "Stay: Tomorrow Needs You" written on the back.

The pullover hoodies are a 50/50 blend, that come in a variety of colors and cost $40 and 100 percent of all profits raised through the donations goes directly to the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Brennan describes Morgynne as the funniest person she had ever met. "She never failed to make me or anyone else smile. If you knew her, you knew how she lit up a room. Her smile was so contagious, if you saw it you had to smile too. She was a loving and loyal friend, sister, and daughter. She was creative, beautiful, humorous, and so much more."

This year's hoodies can be found at CustomInk.com, through Mariposas for Morgynne. So far, 90 sweatshirts have been sold with a goal of 150.

Town Council Approve Upcoming Budget Calendar

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

Approving the budget calendar for the 2024 fiscal year was in discussion at the Sept. 26 Town Council meeting

One of the proposed changes that occurred during the meeting was having an additional budget meeting on Nov. 14. Town Council Chairman, John Farrell, said he thought it made sense to have a meeting that night to be a follow up from Nov. 5, instead of going almost three weeks without a meeting.

"I don't want to wait all the way until the 23rd," Farrell stated.

Some of the notable dates in this year's budget meeting schedule includes the first initial budget presentation by the town department heads on Saturday Nov. 5 at 9 a.m.

The Town Council would have a bond hearing on Dec. 19 and would also have a meeting for preliminary warrant article approval.

The deadline for petitioned warrant articles that propose a Bond governed by RSA 33:8-a are due by Jan. 6 while other petitioned warrant articles are due Jan. 10.

A second budget public hearing and the adoption of the FY 2024 budget along with the final vote on the warrant is scheduled for Jan. 16.

This year's Town Deliberative session is scheduled to take place on Saturday Feb. 11 and will take place at the Londonderry High School cafe.

The School District's Deliberative session is slated to take place on Feb. 10.

The annual Town Meeting is slated to take place on March 14.

It was pointed out by Finance Director, Justin Campo, that like they have done in years past they could have additional meetings for the budget if they find there is a need to schedule more.

In other budget news, during the meeting Londonderry Town, Manager, Mike Malaguti pointed out they now have a vacancy on the Budget Committee and told the Town Council they are the ones who get to decide on who should fill the vacancy until the next election occurs.

It was decided to allow Malaguti to post for the open position.

Also during the meeting, Malaguti gave a preview to the Town Council that they will be coming back in October with a report of what it would take to keep the Lions Hall and be able to have something there going forward.

He noted it would likely not be cheap, but it is important to have the information in order to plan for the future.

"It won't be a small number you will be hearing," said Malaguti.

best to avoid having the water tank stand out from abutting houses. "They can make it any color. We won't be putting any logos or signs or anything of that nature on it."

Heritage Commission questions on the project largely focused on the local impact on surrounding houses and questions from the Planning Board.

"I only made one note, which was just mature arborvitae [evergreens] for screening, I would like to see them rather large, as large as you can get them from the nursery just so they won't take 10 years to fill in," said Commission Chair, Krystopher Kenney.

Tall trees will help the new tank blend into the environment. Overall, there were a few concerns regarding historic structures in town.

In other businesses, the Commission discussed changes to the ongoing corridor management plan along Apple Way. The management plan is designed to showcase the historical and cultural features of Londonderry along a scenic byway.

Resident, David Ellis, recently updated the plan with several suggestions to improve the Apple Way corridor. Members were impressed by the initial findings.

"All of David's suggestions are good," noted Vice Chair, Arthur Rugg.

Ellis was unable to make it to the Sept. 22 meeting. The Commission agreed to go over the recommendations by November.

The construction of a new public safety access road in the Kent Allen Forest has been completed. Director of Public Works & Municipal Facilities, Dave Wholley, completed the project to allow emergency and town vehicles to enter the area as needed from Mammoth Rd. Several forest trails were redone as a part of the access project for hikers.

The Londonderry Heritage Commission is scheduled to meet on the fourth Thursday of every month in the Moose Hill Council Chambers.

Fire Safety All Year

October 9th-15th is the official Fire Prevention Week this year. Many fire departments are using the whole month of October to emphasize fire safety through public education events. Many Fire Departments maybe holding open houses, those are always good times to stop in. You can stop in at your local fire station almost anytime, you get to meet the crew and pick up some pointers on staying safe.

This year's Fire Prevention theme is "Fire won't wait. Plan your escape!" This is so important. It reinforces why everyone needs to have an escape plan and emphasizes the importance of having a smoke detector in every bedroom. Fire officials note that half of home fire deaths result from fires reported between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m., when most people are asleep. They also say that having a working smoke alarm cuts the chances of dying in a reported fire in half.

Other tips: Draw a map of your home with all members of your household, marking two exits from each room and a path to the outside from each exit. Practice your home fire drill twice a year. Conduct one at night and one during the day with everyone in your home, and practice using different ways to get out. Teach children how to escape on their own in case you can't help them. Make sure the number of your home is clearly marked and easy for the fire department to find. Close doors behind you as you leave, this may slow the spread of smoke, heat, and fire.

Once you get outside, stay outside; you should never go back inside a burning building. Having a fire extinguisher is only the first step, knowing how to use it is the vital second step; smoke detector placement, use and testing, making a family escape plan, or the overriding importance of getting out and staying out of a burning building, your local firefighters are ready to talk fire safety. With a fire doubling in size every 30 seconds, the importance of taking fire prevention seriously is a no-brainer.

Calling 911 is another focus of fire safety this month. With the prevalence of cell phones and the frequent absence of landlines, children and everyone else need to know where to they can get quick access to the phone in the middle of the night.

So whether your Fire Department is or is not having an open house go and talk with them. Firefighters love to explain their gear and air packs to children, so that the youngsters will have nothing to be afraid of if they encounter a firefighter during a fire.

As the saying goes, they're the ones running into a burning building as everyone else is running out.

Help them out and keep them as well as yourself safe by learning fire safety and fire prevention tips, and putting them into practice, this month and every month.

Traffic Safety

To the editor

This letter was sent to the Londonderry Town Council & Chairman, Londonderry Traffic Safety Committee on Sept. 9.

I was not able to attend the Londonderry Town Council meeting on Sept. 12. I did not realize that the NH DOT would be making a presentation regarding the Stonehenge Rd., & Rockingham Rd., intersection. Regarding that intersection, I would like to offer these comments:

- I drive through this intersection frequently and do not see a need for a roundabout, but I believe turn lanes would be helpful and maybe all that's needed.

- I am no fan of roundabouts or any other so-called "traffic calming" devices.

- They needlessly cause traffic delays, confusion, and can lead to accidents.

- Pedestrian and cyclists are actually less safe when negotiating a roundabout.

- Roundabouts can actually create anxiety, nervousness and even lead to road rage.

- * There are usually better alternatives to roundabouts.

- I am aware of many instances of expensive tire/wheel damage which some have incurred due to narrow-laned, sharp-curved roundabouts.

- NH DOT may like roundabouts because they can be cheaper to install and especially to maintain.

- Rockingham Rd., (NH Rt. 28) is a major thoroughfare, truck route and School Bus route.

- Roundabouts will not change that, and we all know that roundabouts are certainly not truck friendly.

- In Concord, I saw pretty little flower gardens in the middle of roundabouts that were run over by heavy truck tires.

- At one time, NH DOT wanted to redesign I-93's exit 12 (in Concord) to include a roundabout at each side of the South Main St. (NH Rt. 3A) overpass.

- Concord City Council interceded and successfully convinced the DOT to drop the plan, because like NH Rt., 28, it is a major thoroughfare.

- Coming from North Londonderry and heading south on Rockingham Rd., there is a traffic light at Symmes Dr., I-93 South on-ramp, I-93 North on-ramp, Liberty Drive, and shortly after crossing into Derry, more traffic lights begin just after Scobie Pond Rd.

- As that stretch of road is already heavily signalized, a traffic signal at the intersection of Stonehenge Rd., makes far more sense than a roundabout and should keep traffic flowing better.

- Adding a left turn lane on Stonehenge Rd., and both right (southbound) and left (northbound) turn lanes would also be beneficial and make it safer.

- If signalizing the intersection is unacceptable, then perhaps a true "rotary" or "traffic circle" would be the next best thing. (Think Massabesic traffic circle.) These take a bit more room than a roundabout but certainly improve traffic flow.

- Narrow, cramped roundabouts with inverted banking (pavement sloped the wrong way, in order to make one feel like they are about to tip over even at low speeds) is not a good design.

- Remember, this is the NH DOT's baby and absent any objection, they will build it as they and they alone see fit.

Again, I simply do not see the need for changes to this intersection (with the possible exception of turn lanes). Remember, sometimes doing nothing is in fact an option.

Respectfully,
Robert R. LeBreux
Londonderry

Thank You

To the editor,

I want to thank all of those Londonderry citizens who were able to vote on Sept. 13. According to the Londonderry Times, there were 4,692 people who cared to take the time to get themselves to the high school, often stand in line and vote in our State primary. We have more than 17,000 registered voters in town. I have poll watched and/or sat in the party corrals or pens (you know, those areas where folks hold candidate signs for hours on end) and watched people make their way into the Lancer gym.

I saw many people who struggled, but still came into the polls with walkers, canes and wheel chairs to make sure they voted. One person heavily breathing with oxygen, needed to stop a bit and rest at the gym entrance to regain her

Beautify Londonderry

To the editor,
Happy Fall! Beautify Londonderry would like to welcome all to our Fall Renewal Day on Saturday Oct. 8 from 9 a.m. - noon at Matthew Thornton Elementary.

This Renewal Day volunteers can help our town environment in 3 ways: 1. Roadside/public area trash cleanup, 2. Household clothes & textiles drive for repurposing goods and 3. Learning about composting opportunities for reducing landfill food waste.

As always, Beautify Londonderry will provide bags, gloves, vests and pickers to borrow for the clean-up. You and your team can choose a road near your own location, or we can assign you with a location in need cleaning.

We are excited to also partner with Eco-smith Recyclers Inc. to collect unwanted clothes, shoes & any household textiles. As you are changing out to fall/winter and finding things that don't fit anymore or things that are no longer useable, just bag up donations and bring to put in a collection truck at Matthew Thornton on Oct. 8.

Finally, we will have on hand information about household level composting. Did you know that more than 30 percent of the food we trash into our landfill waste stream could be recycled through composting? Composting properly is good for your gardens and for the Earth.

For more details on the clothing/textile drive, including a list of items, please see the Beautify Londonderry town webpage or the Beautify Londonderry Facebook page. We welcome all who can come join us on Oct. 8!

Speaker of the House Thanks Voters

To the editor,

I want to thank the citizens of Londonderry for their vote in the Sept. 13 primary. I have been honored to serve the Londonderry community in my capacity most recently as Speaker of the House and as your duly elected representative for more than 16 years.

If I am re-elected in November, I will continue working hard for you at the State House. Along with my fellow House Republicans, the focus remains on protecting individual freedoms, cutting more taxes to allow businesses and families to grow, and enacting good legislation that will keep NH the freest, safest, and the best place in which to work and raise a family.

As a member of this great community, I will do my best to keep the interests of Londonderry at the front of every issue that comes before the legislature.

Thank you for your confidence and support, it means the most to me. I would be proud to earn your vote in November.

Sincerely,

"They will not increase it above five percent," said Campo.

Town Council Chairman, John Farrell, said based on the economic factors happening right now he thought it would be a good deal for the Town.

"In today's world, that actually sounds like a deal," said Farrell.

It was explained by Campo that they are in the last year of the deal right now and if they were to extend it by three years it would be how they can lock in the prices. He noted they wouldn't know what this year's numbers are until around December.

Campo stated from 2021 to 2023, which is the current agreement that they are in, the increase has been about 1.93 percent.

Campo then added that if they don't end up having that much of an increase from year to year based on their amount of claims and other factors then it wouldn't automatically increase by five percent each year.

"It's not a guaranteed five," said Campo.

It was pointed out by Campo that if they do end up having a lot of claims, then they may not keep them for next year or could potentially increase the prices.

"They will reevaluate it once again," said Campo.

Farrell explained he felt the agreement was something that protects the Town.

"It's a nice safety net," said Farrell.

Also during the October meeting, Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, gave the Town Council an update regarding the increase the town will be paying for Waste Management after they made a request due to the rising costs associated with trash removal.

The total increase they settled on was $513,000 for over the remainder of the contract.

Malaguti said the contract was heavily vetted.

"It has been carefully scrutinized by staff," said Malaguti.

Malaguti added that he was looking to move forward with official authorization from the Town Council.

The Town Council ultimately approved his request.

Town Councilor, Deb Paul, who is the ex officio member of the Solid Waste Committee, said that the group is supportive of their proposal.

"The Solid Waste Committee was in total support and thought it was the best move for the town," said Paul.

Council Get Update On Freedom Energy Agreement

ALEX MALM
LONDONDERRY TIMES

One of the items brought up during the Sept. 26 Town Council meeting was an agreement with Freedom Energy.

Town Manager, Mike Malaguti, explained it's something that has been pending in front of the Energy Committee and Town Council for a while.

He explained in 2020 they signed an agreement with the consulting company because they wanted to be able to engage in the rule-making process for community choice aggregation.

The purpose of this would be to allow municipalities to save money for their cost of energy along with the cost for residents.

Recently they received a presentation from a different company called Community Power.

"They are moving towards the same goals," said Malaguti.

Malaguti added that they recently met with Freedom Energy to get an update on their efforts under their agreement. They also made the pitch to continue the consultant contract with them and to not go with Community Power.

Since signing the agreement one of the things they pointed to is making a filing in the Public Utility Commission rulemaking docket. He said that is where legislation is flushed out and then implemented.

Malaguti stated they have also been negotiating with Eversource to get the data that is needed so they can finalize the aggregation plan and move forward.

Malaguti said when they signed the agreement originally, one of the things they were required to do was put together a committee to work on the community aggregation plan.

With that said, Malaguti explained it is hard to find out who was originally appointed to the committee.

"The details on that are sketchy," said Malaguti.

Malaguti stated in order to move forward with the plan that would then be presented in front of the Town Council they need to reinstate the committee.

Town Councilor, Deb Paul, who also is the Chair of the recently formed Energy Task Force in town, asked why they would need to have a separate committee.

"Why do we need a separate committee when we already have an energy committee," said Paul.

She asked if they could have a sub committee for it through the Energy Committee.

Malaguti said he wasn't sure about the legality of it because of the charter, but said he would look into it.

Town Council Chairman, John Farrell, said it sounds like they are planning for the future and said that they do that through the capital improvement plan committee. He added that it would be a good representation from across the community if they have those people handle it.

Malaguti said he would come back to the Town Council in the near future with a more definitive plan.

OBITUARY

Clark A. Smith

Clark A. Smith, 60, of Londonderry, NH, passed away on Sept. 27, 2022, at Mass General Hospital in Boston, MA, after a long battle with heart failure. He was a fighter until the end & greatly admired for his stoic nature.

Born 1962, Clark spent his early years in Vermont. He became a determined athlete, playing high school football & was state champion in wrestling. He went on to play rugby in college & was an advanced skier, snowboarder, & avid outdoorsman. He graduated from Norwich University in 1984. After marrying his wife, Kimberly, they settled in Londonderry in 1997. Clark held various positions as an Insurance Broker, Entrepreneur, Realtor, & most recently as a Manager at Home Depot in Salem, NH.

Clark was a true DIY man of many talents. He could fix just about anything. He never went anywhere without striking up a conversation. If you ever needed information about a location, he'd likely been there & could give you a "shortcut". Clark had a passion for animals, especially the family's newest boxer, Liko. He loved the outdoors - whether he was fishing, hiking, camping, or trying something new. He never tired of trying to catch 'the big one' & always had the highest tally of the day.

Clark loved watching sports, especially when his sons were on the lacrosse field. Many will remember him as Coach Clark, he was an amazing asset to the town's youth lacrosse program. He passed along his love of sports & competitive nature to his children. Clark spent many days riding his motorcycle & connecting with others over it. He hosted an annual motorcycle event called CroMag, & will be deeply missed by the friends he made. Anyone who knew Clark will never forget his deep laugh, contagious grin, & "Clark-isms". Clark was larger than life, his shoes cannot be filled.

He leaves his wife, Kimberly, & their sons, Mason and Hunter, of Londonderry, NH; his daughter, Amanda, of Concord, NH; parents, Joy & Wayne Smith, of Weathersfield, VT; & sister & her husband, Brianne & Scot Bemis, & their children Abby & Bret.

A Celebration of Life is being scheduled. Check back for details at www.peabodyfuneralhome.com. Friends will be invited to come share fond memories and to bring a written story or impression of Clark that his children can treasure forever. Donations can be made to an education fund for Clark's children at <https://everloved.com/life-of/clark-smith>.

Lancers Football Team Down Little Green in Manchester

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Football squad had four touchdowns to start the first quarter at Manchester Central High School, on Friday night, Sept. 30, and came away with an easy 48-6 win over the Little Green.

The Lancers pushed their division record up to 4-0 with the win over Central and will now prepare for Bishop Guertin. The Cardinals (5-0) are the only team with a winning record that Londonderry will face in the remaining four games of the regular season.

In the 42-point win over Central, Londonderry amassed 350 total yards of offense. They had 145-yards in the air and 205 on the ground.

The Lancers also caused three fumbles and Trevor Weinmann got an interception.

The first Lancer touchdown of the game was scored just 30 seconds in the first when junior running back, Jake Schena, had an 11-yard touchdown run to start the scoring.

Three minutes later, LHS junior Seth Doyon recovered a Manchester fumble on the 14-yard line for a 13-7 Lancer lead. The point after kick by senior Jack Drabik was blocked.

At 3:31 left in the first, LHS senior quarterback, Drew Heenan, completed his pass to senior Andrew Kullman for a 51-yard touchdown. They followed that up with a two-point conversion run by Kullman for the 21-0 lead.

With two-and-a-half minutes left in the opening quarter, Manchester got their only points of the game on an 11-yard run. Londonderry special team's blocked the extra point.

Schena added six more points before the quarter ended with a nine-yard run to pay dirt, followed by a successful extra point by Drabik for a commanding 28-6 lead.

In the second period, Heenan had a 27-yard pass play to junior wide receiver, Nate Rosario,

Small Hits the Millennium Mark in Assists for Lancers Volleyball

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Girls' Volleyball squad saw their winning streak end at 10 games on Thursday night against Bedford High School, but fans were also able to witness senior setter, Lexi Small, get her 1,000th assist in the first game of that match.

Small, who has been a varsity player all four years of her high school career, needed just seven assists to reach the millennium mark and did that by the time the score was 13-16 in the first set.

Unfortunately for the team, that was the only real celebrating done in the battle against the only other undefeated team in Division I.

Coming into the game, the Bulldogs girls were 8-0 and the Lancers had a 10-0 record, and Bedford was able to outlast their host three games to one in the match.

Londonderry was able to battle Bedford tightly in three of the four sets, but ran out of steam in the final game. Sets scores were: 25-27, 21-25, 25-19 and 8-25.

Besides Small's major milestone, other standouts were: Ally McGonagle, with 18 kills and five aces; Riley Campo had four blocks and four kills; and Lacey Turner came away with six kills and three digs.

Lexi Small

Earlier in the week, the Lancers got their tenth victory with a with a straight set win at Alvirne High School.

Londonderry took those sets 25-19, 25-15 and 25-12.

McGonagle had 10

kills and three aces in the match. Small got 19 assists and three aces.

Shannon Ball and Riley Campo each had four kills in the match. Londonderry will have another tough match this week. They will travel to Nashua on Friday night to face the Titans who have also only lost one match this season.

A brief ceremony was held after the match against Bedford to honor Lexi Small.

Athletes of the Week

Week of Sept. 26

Trevor Weinmann

Senior, Varsity Football

The three-year starter and captain has had back-to-back games with an interception. He also had a sack, fumble recovery, pass break ups and several pass pressures, and a dozen tackles. He's also done a great job with his offensive blocking, running, and catching.

Lexi Small

Senior, Varsity Volleyball

Lexi is a true leader for her team. She always thinks of her team first and has led LHS to a 10-1 start. Last week, Lexi passed the amazing milestone of 1,000 assists in her career at LHS.

Lancers Boys' Soccer Get a Five Goal Win in Hudson

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Boys' Soccer team traveled to Hudson last week where they got a 5-0 win over the Alvirne Broncos to start the final week of September.

The win at Alvirne High School on Tuesday, Sept. 27, was the fourth of the season, but LHS suffered their fourth loss two days later at Nashua North.

Londonderry pushed their season record up to 4-3-2 with the victory over Alvirne (2-7).

Lancer senior forward, Cristian Levantovski-Correa, had two goals in the first half to start the game against the Broncos.

In the 35th minute, Levantovski-Correa scored with the assist coming from sophomore Brett McKinnon.

One minute later,

Cristian Levantovski-Correa

Levantovski-Correa netted a second goal with an assist from sophomore Zach Mantegari.

Mantegari put the LHS boys ahead 3-0 when he scored in the 38th minute on a pass from McKinnon.

In the second half, McKinnon added two goals of his own. One goal was assisted by sophomore Justin Dion, at 72:30, and the other assist went to sophomore Aidan Board in the 75th minute.

Londonderry junior goalkeeper, Jason Reilly, had three saves to secure the shutout and Alvirne made three saves on eight shots.

Head coach, Todd Ellis, was happy with the team's effort, "It took us a bit to get going tonight, but once we did we scored some brilliant ones," he said.

Ellis added, "Our effort was much better throughout the entire second half. Consistency with that will be the key as the season plays out."

Londonderry's season record dropped to 4-4-2 on Thursday, Sept. 29, when they lost 3-1 to Nashua North (9-2).

The Lancers kept pace with the Titans for much of this game, giving up the first goal in the 49th minute of the second half, but then tying things up in minute 65 on a goal from Levantovski Correa assisted by Dion.

Unfortunately, North was able to get the 3-1 win with two unanswered goals in the final 17-minutes of the game.

Reilly had three saves in the loss and LHS managed six shots on the Titan's goal.

Ellis felt that North was probably the best team they have seen this season.

He said, "We played well defensively the first half, and then did a better job of getting forward in the attack in the second half," but too many mistakes were made toward the end.

LHS will play two home games this week, on Tuesday against Merrimack (2-7-1), and on Friday starting at 4 p.m. against Hanover (6-4).

Lady Lancer Soccer Squad Finish Month with a Victory

CHRIS PAUL
LONDONDERRY TIMES

The Londonderry High School Girls' Soccer team was able to get back to the .500 mark after managing a close 1-0 win over the Nashua North Titans at home last week.

The win came after suffering three straight losses on the team's home turf.

The Lancers squad started the week with a game on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 27, against the Alvirne High School Broncos.

In that home contest, the Lancers were unable to score and wound up losing by one goal.

Two days later, again at home, Londonderry took on the Nashua North Titans and were able to outlast that team with a one-goal lead taken halfway through the second half.

Londonderry senior

Drea Dwyer scored the only goal of the game in the 67th minute, assisted by sophomore Audrey Hughes.

Lancers sophomore goal tender, Reagan Delude, had a total of eight stops in the game. Six in the first half and two saves in the second period to help secure the much-needed win.

Londonderry had a total of 11 shots on the Nashua tender, six in the first half and five in the second.

The team was scheduled to go to Merrimack High School (6-2-1), on Oct. 4, and will play Hanover High School (4-6) two days later in Hanover.

Drea Dwyer against a Nashua North opponent.

Football

and Drabik's kick was good, for the 35-6 lead to end the first half.

In the third quarter, sophomore Caiden Malek had a 55-yard run for a touchdown and in the fourth, senior Jack VanNort had a two-yard run for the final touchdown of the evening.

Heenan was 7-10 on pass attempts, totaling 139-yards with two touchdowns.

Kullman got four receptions for 100-yards and Rosario had one for 27-yards to lead the team.

Rushing yards were pretty well spread out in the game with Malek getting 66-yards on three attempts; Carson Palma had 35-yards on three runs; Schena, 27-yards; and Conor Williams had 19-yards on four runs.

Drabik led on defense with four tackles and two assists. Jaydon Navarro, Conor Williams and Mike Thistle each had three tackles.

Classified Advertising

READERS ARE CAUTIONED that we occasionally run ads that require an initial investment or money in advance. We urge our readers to "do their homework" before responding to any ad, check out the advertiser thoroughly and verify their claims to your total satisfaction. Only then should you proceed at your own risk. We try to screen ads that require you to send money before receiving a product or service. But these efforts are no substitute for your own investigation, and we don't endorse or guarantee any claims made in any of the ads we publish. If you want more information about claims made in ads on subjects such as work at home opportunities, travel or vacation specials, purchasing land or vehicles from government surplus or below wholesale, loans or other credit opportunities (including credit repair), or weight loss and other health products and services, we urge you to contact the Office of Attorney General, Consumer Protection Bureau, 33 Capitol Street, Concord, NH 03301 (603-271-3641) or the Better Business Bureau at 603-224-1991. Publisher is not responsible for any loss of business if an ad does not run, and we reserve the right to revoke any ad if deemed necessary. No refunds will be given for prepaid ads.

OBITUARY

Germaine "Geri" Cox

Germaine "Geri" Cox passed away on Sept. 29, 2022 at Elliot Hospital, from multiple health issues. She was born in Rochester, NY on Nov. 25, 1943 to Frank and Germaine Schug. She is predeceased by her daughter Rosemarie Cox, & survived by her husband, Thomas Cox, her daughter, Laura Hulen, her son, Michael Cox & 4 grandchildren, Zack Hulen, Gabriel Hulen, Kierra Hulen & Nathan Hulen.

Raised in Rochester, Geri graduated from St. Agnes Catholic High School & attended Monroe Community College. In 1966, she married Thomas Cox. During the following years, she was a homemaker, raising a family, & managing a home life.

Geri was a warm & outgoing person; active in church, school & civic organizations. She always went the extra distance to help others & make them feel special with a genuine smile, listening with intention, & small acts of kindness. She was recognized over the years for this with several awards, including outstanding employee of the quarter & the "gold" service award for outstanding customer service.

All those who knew Geri will miss her greatly.

Following cremation, a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Saturday Oct. 22, at 11 a.m., at St. Mark Church, One South Rd., Londonderry, NH. The Peabody Funeral Homes & Crematorium of Londonderry is assisting the family with arrangements. To send condolence or for more information, visit www.peabodyfuneralhome.com.

Police Chief

Malaguti's choice. Bernard spoke briefly after the appointment saying he grew up in Goffstown and barely knew anything of Londonderry until meeting his predecessor Bill Hart and former Chief, Joe Ryan.

He was hired during a time when his daughter was battling an illness and Chief Ryan welcomed him soon after family crisis subsided.

Bernard said, "This police department gave me everything it could have in my life, and I'm going to give back everything I have for many years to come."

He added, "I will do my best to serve you with dignity and honor and to the community, I will give you transparency and honestly every day I'm in office."

He also mentioned there would not be any major changes underway yet in the departments, but he would be building the staff to form the best police force in the state. He also added that residents would see him throughout the community, maybe more than people would like, and the door is always open for anyone with questions or concerns.
